

DAVID: "ARE YOU UNDER HIS SPELL?"

Susan Bain: "HIS TERRIFIC TALENT!"

"Is there anything that David can't do? I don't think so! As an actor, he moves from comedy to dramatic roles with ease. He never seems self-conscious and it's David who holds my attention no matter how many people are in a scene with him!

"His singing is maybe the best part, because even though his show is only on once a week, his music is always there, waiting for me to listen. Not only is his voice terrific, but he writes music too, and these are always my favorite songs!

"Someday, I'm sure, David will be a big motion picture star and win an Academy Award. This will flip me out, not only because I know he deserves it, but because then instead of watching him on my small TV screen I'll get to enjoy seeing his beautiful face magnified hundreds of times larger than life! Nothing is too good for David!"

Elizabeth Dunquist: "HE CARES!"

"Nobody in the world could ever convince me that David doesn't care about his fans! I know, because I met him!

"I'm one of the lucky girls who has lived in Hollywood all my life, and it isn't unusual to turn a corner and run into a famous star, just like that! Well, I've run into quite a few, and without a doubt David was the nicest!

"It happened when I was at the dry cleaners picking up some clothes. I heard a familiar voice and turned to see none other than David Cassidy! Even though I have worshipped him from afar for a long time, I was kind of afraid to say anything. I think I didn't want him to snub me and ruin the beautiful picture I had of him.

"You know, David sensed this right away, and he came up to me with a big smile and said 'Hi!' Then he asked my name and started talking just like we were old friends! All the time I wanted to pinch myself to make sure I wasn't dreaming!

"So take my word for it, David does care, and he's the nicest, sweetest guy I've ever met!"

Lily Casterella: "HIS WONDERFUL WAYS!"

"Could you ever imagine David Cassidy having a temper tantrum, being unfair, or doing anything at all for selfish reasons? I can't, because it just isn't in his makeup to be anything but the groovy person he is!

"His wonderful ways set a standard for me that I can only hope to reach! When I find myself feeling even slightly tempted to be mean to someone or have an argument with my family, I tell myself that David wouldn't like it and it stops all the bad vibes right away!

"There are lots of things about his life that aren't easy for him—he works very hard and has so little time to really let loose and enjoy himself. Yet you would never know it to watch him—he carries through with a grace that is a wonderful example for me and everyone else! I'm a better person thanks to David!"

Dana Wrightman: "HE KNOWS ABOUT LOVING!"

"There's a lot more to love than girl meets boy and happiness ever after, and David knows this. He loves his family and isn't ashamed to show his affection in many different ways. You can tell that children hold a special place in his heart, too. Just look at the softness in his face whenever he's with them!

"David has loved and lost, too. First one dog, his companion ever since high school days, was killed. Then his second beautiful puppy died soon after David got him for his birthday! But a loving guy like David won't give up easily, I know. It won't be long before he has another dog to share his life and laughter!

"I truly believe that loves does make the world go around, and it makes me feel very warm inside that David shares my feeling! I only wish everyone was able to give love as freely and beautifully as he does!"

Jenny Carter: "HE COULD BE MINE"

"One day my girlfriends and I were talking about David, and trying to decide what we loved best about him! One girl said that he turned her on simply because he was too darling-looking to be believed! Another said that his voice was the most beautiful thing about him, and on and on.

"But I think I know what I love best about David, outside of all the things my friends said (and which I agree 100% with!) The simple fact remains, that David—impossible as it is—doesn't have a special girl yet!

"This is the thought I can keep close to me when I think about David and how wonderful he is! I may not live in the same town he does, but who's to say that the girl he'll fall in love with does? She might be thousands of miles away, and one day fate will take a hand in things and his path will cross with hers!

"One thing I know—I'm not going to give up hope! As far as I'm concerned, that girl David Cassidy is searching for could be ME!"
