

YOU'RE TELLING ME!

Dear Patricia,
You can write to Heshimu at Room 222, 20th Century Fox, Box 900, Beverly Hills, Calif. Here's a tasty tidbit about Heshimu I'll bet you didn't know. He was given his Swahili name, Heshimu Cumbuka, which means respected young warrior, by his fellow actors and instructors at the theater workshop he studies at. He was born as Arlington Banks.

FROM GLORIA STAVERS

I want to assure each and every one of you who writes a letter to me at 16 Magazine that your letter is delivered to me personally. I want to assure you too that I read every single letter I receive, that I'm grateful to you for writing to me and that I appreciate every suggestion and criticism you address to me. There isn't enough space in 16 Magazine for me to publish every letter I receive and there isn't enough time for me to answer every letter personally—but please keep writing and look for your letter and my answer each month in You're Telling Me!

Address all of your letters as follows: Miss Gloria Stavers, c/o 16 Magazine, Business Office, 745 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022.

HEYWOOD FAN

Dear Miss Stavers, I was lucky enough to meet the Heywoods during their last concert here. They're all great performers and such nice people. Will you please print this pic of me with Dave Krock of the Heywoods? I never want to forget that memorable day. Also, I was wondering if Bud Weigand has left the Heywoods, since I saw them on the Merv Griffin show in October and he wasn't with them?

Donna Hannan
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Donna, Glad you had such a terrific time at the Heywoods' and Osbro's concert. They both really are groovy groups! Here's your pic, but I doubt if you'll need it to remember that wonderful day. About Bud of the Heywoods—don't worry—he's still in the group. The night of the Merv Griffin taping Bud was recuperating from a minor operation. He is now fully recovered and performing once again.

TOMMY OSMOND

Dear Miss Stavers, On page 14 of the May issue of 16 there is a picture of Tommy Osmond and his wife. In the pic he looks as if he is wearing a hearing aid. Is this true?

Wanda Jackson
Plum Beach, S.C.

Dear Wanda, Yes, Tommy was born deaf and wears a hearing aid. He communicates in sign language, and all the Osmonds know it.
