

The Partridge Family Invites You!

MEET US AT KINGS ISLAND!

What do you think it would be like to spend a week with the Partridge Family? It would be like having all your dreams come true, right? Well, you can do it—just shut your eyes and imagine yourself with them . . . but not in Hollywood, where you'd ordinarily find the Partridges! Nope, your week with them is gonna take place in a fantastic land called Kings Island, Ohio!

Kings Island is a terrific amusement park outside Cincinnati, and that's where you'll find the Partridges this week, filming a segment of their show.

It's a warm and beautiful day when you arrive at Kings Island, but why is there such a big crowd right inside the front gates of the park? And look at all those big cameras and equipment standing around! Coming closer for a look you suddenly see David inside a roped-off area surrounded by security guards! And there's Susan, and Danny Bonaduce! You've found the Partridges!

Kings Island has a scale model of the Eiffel Tower in the park, and one scene was shot on the top of it. Here David and Danny are enjoying the view!
