they might lose a lot of their fans, including me. Barbara Duncan; Escondido, Calif.

Dear FLIP,

I would like to say something to Melissa Eusebio of San Bruno, Calif. (Oct. FLIPflap). I wish I lived where you do! I'm an avid Osmonds fan, and I get pretty burned up at the disc jockeys here in Cherry Hill. I've tried every half-decent station I can get on my radio, and they all cut up the Osmonds. Keep up the good work, KYA, and I hope that someday one of your disc jockeys comes my way! Susan Piccone; Cherry Hill, N. J.

Dear FLIP,

I don't know if anyone else noticed this, but it is funny. In the October issue, you had a centerfold picture of David Cassidy, and on page 40 you had "Nope! This funny looking picture isn't a mistake!" Then you went on to explain how to remove the picture. Well, after the picture was removed, the arrow was pointing right at the photo of Merrill Osmond on page 43, and it said, "Nope! This funny looking picture isn't a mistake!" It was funny! Elizabeth Lindsey, Sweeden, Ky.

Dear FLIP,

I recently saw Sonny and Cher at the Illinois State Fair. I had to climb over a wall to see them, and I have to say it was worth it. I wish that the Osmonds would appear there sometime. Jolynn Hibbert; Quincy, Ill.

Dear FLIP,

I used to think your magazine was despicable. You always used to brag and sass back to mothers. But I must say you've changed an awful lot. I'm glad I continued to buy your mag. I happen to believe that you (and all other mags) make up what you put in the book. But if you print this letter, I'll be a true blue fan forever. C. M.; Brooklyn, Mich.

Dear FLIP,

I get your magazine each month, and in the October issue "The Last Time I Cried" was great. The one on Jay Osmond was the best, and I can tell you right now that the last time I cried was when I read his! Julie Pollock; Lawrenceburg, Tenn.

Dear FLIP,

Last Saturday I saw the Osmonds cartoon on TV. All I have to say is WOW! Donny's voice is so great. It's really changed into something terrific!! Donny is not only beautiful, he sings so great and his speaking voice is too hot to handle! When I went to the Osmonds concert, I screamed my head off when I heard Donny's deep, fabulous, beautiful voice! Osmonds Forever; Lynbrook, N. Y.

Dear FLIP,

I've just seen the Osmonds two days in a row, and both concerts were great. The costumes are so beautiful, their dancing is so in step, and they are so fantastic. Little Jimmy had everyone laughing. I called to Merrill and he waved, then he gave me one of his beautiful looks, smiled and nodded his head. I want to thank the Osmonds for being so nice, and to thank them for coming to New Jersey. I hope they come back next year. Mary Bednarz; Roselle Park, N. J.

Dear FLIP,

In the September FLIP there was an article called "Your Happy Day in Hawaii With the Osmonds!" In this article you said that the Osmonds inspected an Imu, which is a hut where food is prepared. I would like to correct you on this. An Imu is an underground oven, or a roasting pit. L. H.; Holualoa, Hawaii

Dear FLIP,

I just wanted to write and tell you about one of the most wonderful persons on earth—my father. Why? Because he took his time to drive my girlfriend and me to an Osmonds concert in Savannah, Georgia—an almost three-hour drive from where we live in Florida. Once there, he had as much fun as we did and talked about the concert all the way home! Karin Jones; Orange Park, Fla.

Dear FLIP,

I'd just like to say I'm very disappointed in the Osmonds' new song, "Hold Her Tight." It's lacking in tune, good lyrics and is generally inferior to all their other hits. It has a good beat, but that's about all. Ever since "One Bad Apple," I've anxiously awaited each new Osmond hit, and I've liked them all. But if this bad song-writing and producing keeps up, the Osmonds' popularity is going to slip, and
