*Left: Since the breakup of her marriage, Deana Martin (Dean's 22-year-old daughter), is dating TV's former "Bearcat" Dennis Cole. It's still togetherness between Priscilla Presley and Mike Stone. Not only were they arm-in-arm at another karate tournament (this one was held in Long Beach), but they wore matching black shirts, white pants—and Priscilla had an Afro hairstyle to match her favorite beau's.

At the end of the tournament, Priscilla helped Mike fill out checks for the karate winners.

Johnny Carson and model Joanna Holland were secretly married by Judge Mario Clinco in the Santa Monica courthouse, then broke the happy news to friends later in the day at a huge party given in Johnny's honor by NBC-TV. This is Carson's third marriage;

Joanna's second. It's rumored Johnny wants out of the "Tonight Show" in 1974, and what Johnny wants, he usually gets.

A Los Angeles conservationist almost had a heart attack when she saw an upholsterer covering a new chair for Sonny and Cher. She thought the fur he was using was real leopard skin, when actually it was rabbit pelts transformed through an expert dye job.

Dean Martin's Cathy Hawn has changed her auburn tresses to blond.

Ross Hunter tells me he had no idea Olivia Hussey was pregnant when she went into "Lost Horizon." But, as production progressed, he thought she was putting on weight. After the picture was finished, Olivia confessed.

"I hope you won't be mad at me for not telling you sooner," she said, "but my baby will be born after the first of the year." Ross wasn't mad at all.

He thinks casting wonderful Charles Boyer as the lama was a tremendous coup.

"Most people don't remember this," he says, "but in Hilton's book, from which the picture was taken, the lama was a Belgian priest."

While Elvis and Priscilla have been breaking each other's heart, their little Lisa has been visiting El's relatives in Memphis.

Chris and Lynda Day George and baby Krisinda enjoyed a few days respite from the Hollywood grind in Murietta Hot Springs, a Southern California resort.
