WHAT MATTERS DAVID

GIRLS

"I like girls. That sounds daft, doesn't it. But it's true. I like girls — all girls. They brighten up the world and make it worth living for guys like me!"

NATURE

"All things natural — trees, mountains, grass, flowers — I love nature and the earth. I'm never happier than when I'm bang in the middle of nowhere, far away from anything man made."

ANIMALS

"All living creatures are close to my heart. You know how much I've loved my dogs. As far as I'm concerned animals can be even nicer than people — maybe not all the time — and I love them just as much, and sometimes a bit more..."

ACTING

"This is my great love. It's what I really live for. I'll be an actor all my life. I'm really looking forward to moving on from being Keith Partridge and trying other roles. I like Keith a lot — he's a lot like me — but now I've reached a point where I want to try other, new things as well."

SKIING

"This may seem a bit odd next to all the other serious things I've mentioned, but it's something that matters an awful lot to me.

"It combines both mind and body — like acting. There's nothing quite like zooming down a mountainside, snow flying past you — wow, it's terrific!"

"Any chance I get, you'll find me planning how I can fit my next skiing trip in."
