

EXCLUSIVE

DAVID TELLS ALL

There have been so many rumours and stories going around about what David Cassidy is going to do in the future, that we decided the only way to find out was to ask David himself. And here in another 'It's Here' exclusive is the true story from David himself . . .

HI there! I'd like to take this opportunity to tell all 'It's Here and Now!' readers the truth about 'The Partridge Family', about my career, about my plans for the future, about the real David Bruce Cassidy.

To take 'The Partridge Family' first — as it's the simplest and easiest to talk about. The situation basically is that I (and Shirley Jones, by the way) will be leaving the show at the end of the present series. I shall probably be written out of the script by going to college or something. But actually I'm not doing any Partridge Family work at the present cos there has been (and still is) a nationwide scriptwriters' strike in America, so this means I'm not actually doing anything at the moment.

I'm just relaxing basically — I own four racehorses now and now that I've got the time (which I never had before) I go round to the stables several times a week. Also, I'm really getting into growing plants and vegetables — I've got a bumper crop of tomatoes at the moment! I really enjoy gardening actually — it's a very peaceful occupation and you can take time out to think.

And that's basically what I've been doing a lot of — just thinking about myself and what I'm going to do with my life. And I feel I should do some explaining, let you in on my
