THE DAVID B. CASSIDY STORY

DAVID BRUCE CASSIDY was born on the morning of the 12th of April, 1950 in the Little Flower Hospital on Lower Fifth Avenue in New York City.

His birth-sign is Aries and that means he is supposed to be a ruler and pioneer. David is certainly a ruler and a pioneer for in just three years he has become a show business phenomenon. He has ruled the pop world for the last year or so and has pioneered the return of sheer excitement and audience participation to pop music.

At all of his concerts so far, David has really shown what he can do with a tremendous burst of energy! He sang his heart out for thousands of fans who flocked to his concerts here in England. Before he arrived, he rehearsed really hard in Los Angeles, to get his performance just right. With that determination and will-power, David has reached the top of his profession, and he did it purely on his own.

David says "Pop music is a competitive world, and there are always the trouble-makers. People have been stirring up feuds and fights between me and the Osmonds, or the Jackson Five and me, and it
