

DAVID LEAVES PF!!!

HOW CAN THE SHOW GO ON?

That's just what everybody's asking!!! How can there be a Partridge Family w-i-t-h-o-u-t David Cassidy? It seems impossible and nobody knows just how it is going to be done. After all, David is the star of the show, and most of its episodes evolve around him. Keith is always getting himself into one predicament or another!

But next September, ABC is going to try a whole new Partridge Family on Saturday mornings. Whether this is a sign of what is to come on the Friday night show is a closely kept secret! Nobody's talking! The Saturday morning show will be an animated cartoon show and David Cassidy, as Keith, will definitely not be in it!

It's a confusing situation! Because David is scheduled to return to the regular Friday night show. Industry people are guessing as to just why David has been written out of the animated Partridge Family. One guess is that ABC is experimenting to see if there can indeed be a Partridge Family without David!

Rumors have been flying for months about David's wanting to leave the show and expand into different areas. That he wants to begin a serious acting career, nobody doubts. For now, David fans relax—you'll be able to see him as Keith as usual on PF next season. Keith is going to college and he'll be getting into all kinds of hilarious adventures! Just how long he'll be enrolled though—nobody will say!
