

15 FAVES REVEAL:

My Summer Romance Would Be...

Summer romances begin on a balmy, star-lit night. They blossom on stolen kisses and secrets shared. Too soon, they end in sadness, but with a feeling of growth and wisdom. We asked 15 faves who they'd like to share a romance with and the answers were as interesting as they were revealing!

MICHAEL GRAY:
YOU! "More than anything I'd like to have our summer be filled with days of love and sharing. To get to know you the way I'd like to would be a dream come true!"

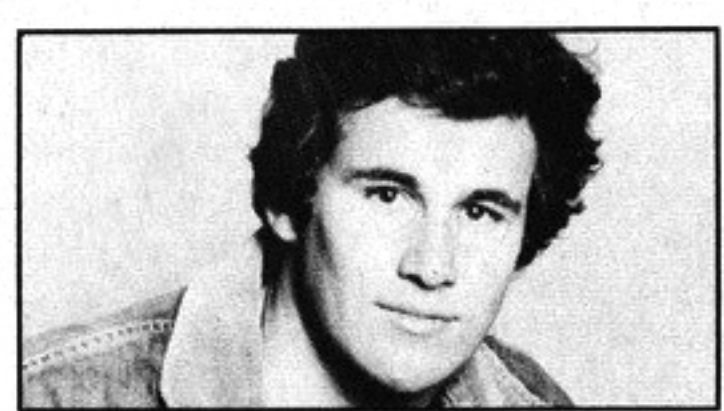

JERMAINE JACKSON:
ARETHA FRANKLIN. "A summer romance means getting to know someone on a loving, personal level. To me, Aretha Franklin is a person with so much soul, it would be a gas to share it with her for a whole summer!"

DAVID WILLIAMS:
CLEOPATRA, QUEEN OF THE NILE. "Men fought and died for the love of Cleopatra, so she must have been some dynamite chick! If it didn't mean losing an arm (or maybe a head) it would be really interesting to spend a summer romancing 'the Queen of the Nile.'"

ANDY WILLIAMS:
THE FIRST LADY ASTRO-NAUT. "What a romance you could have on a spaceship bound for the moon! I really want to go to the moon someday, and having a lady astronaut as a partner would make it even more inviting!"

MIKE ONTKEAN:
MARILYN MONROE. "To me, Marilyn was one of the greatest actresses of all time. She was the essence of sexiness, and at the same time so very feminine and naive. Too often, people forget that stars are people with feelings too, and I would love to have known Marilyn personally."

MICHAEL JACKSON:
DIANA ROSS. "My whole family owes a great deal to Diana for helping us get started. She's a true friend and a fantastic person. But she's also so much fun to be around and such a foxy lady, it would really be super to spend a summer in love with Diana!"
