

and when it comes to it, who do the Sweet really care about? Their fans of course!

On David Cassidy's birthday, when he was 23, the British fan club received 10,000 cards and 3,000 gifts.

BACK TOGETHER AGAIN!

Carley Simon now singing with her sister Lucy for an album of childrens songs. Also nice to know that Crosby, Stills and Nash are back together again recording a new album for our delight, in Hawaii.

GOLDEN GOODIES!

Amazing when you think about it, those two double Beatles albums of goldie oldies zooming up to the top of the album charts. Still, they do bring back those wonderful feelings when you hear them again, and someone who was in the company of Ringo when one of them was being played, noted him saying that they still gave him a funny glow on hearing those old tracks. Ah for the good old days!

Next time you buy a record you might like to remember that last year nearly one billion pounds was spent on records and tapes, and over one hundred million pounds by people going to see concerts! That's an awful lotta bread...
