

Have you heard?

Sue Lyon quietly divorced her husband of only a year or so after they had their baby. She dropped out of sight but turned up in Spain at a discotheque with her frequent companion, Carlos Pardo, a film producer. This is evidently a different phase of her life for Sue is really into charity works and schools for small children. She is taking time off and traveling.

SPANISH SUE!

CASSIDY'S TOURING!

Whenever "The Partridge Family" goes on hiatus, you can be sure young David Cassidy is off and running, performing around the world. He's due back in Europe this time. Everyone wondered if he would run into his father Jack Cassidy, who supposedly took Shirley Jones off for a second honeymoon. The answer is probably no. A honeymoon is private and he'll see them all back in Hollywood later.

SHAFT'S BACK!

Richard Roundtree really enjoys his work and you can see why. Here he's with two of his leading ladies, 18-year-old Yugoslav-born Neda Arneric (right) and Vonetta McGee, described as the most beautiful black actress in films . . . probably by Richard, natch! They're in "Shaft in Africa."
