TURN AROUND SIMON

Do you remember that gorgeous blond boy who played Ned East in "Tom Brown's Schooldays" on TV? If you didn't see him in that show perhaps you saw him in "Owen MD"? or "The Edwardians"? His name is Simon Turner and he's 18. Simon's just beginning a record career — with the right guy and company — Jonathan King's UK Records. Watch out for this blond bombshell.

JOKES JOKES JOKES

Why don't they play cards in the jungle?
Because there're lots of cheetahs!

If you went right round the world where would you be?
Right back where you started from!

Elizabeth Jenkinson — Keswick, Cumb.

Boo
Boo Who?
If you're going to cry about it I'm not going to tell you!

What time is it when an elephant sits on a fence?
It's time to get a new fence!
