FOR YOU

David Cassidy gets really quite upset when people ask for his autograph 'For my daughter', 'For my little cousin', 'For my sister', when all the time he knows they want the autograph for themselves.

"Some of them are sincere, but more often than not they only want the autograph for themselves. They're just too proud to admit it."

So remember fans, next time you meet David, be sure to ask for an autograph for yourself!

DISTURBING WOMBLES

Seems like those Wombles are getting everywhere! They've been spotted in places as far apart as Birmingham, Manchester, Liverpool and Southampton—a long way from Wimbledon Common!

At a shop in Croydon recently, a Womble was actually slung out, 'for creating a disturbance', by some meanie security men.

Wombles are usually found round record shops autographing copies of 'The Wombling Song'. So if you see one give it our love.

And keep Wombling . . .

DAVID MISSES OUT

Would you believe that David Bowie was recently listed as one of the worst-dressed WOMEN of 1973?

Earl Blackwell, creator of the annual list of the most unfashionably-dressed women, decided that David should be included this year.

David doesn't mind though—he thinks it's rather funny!

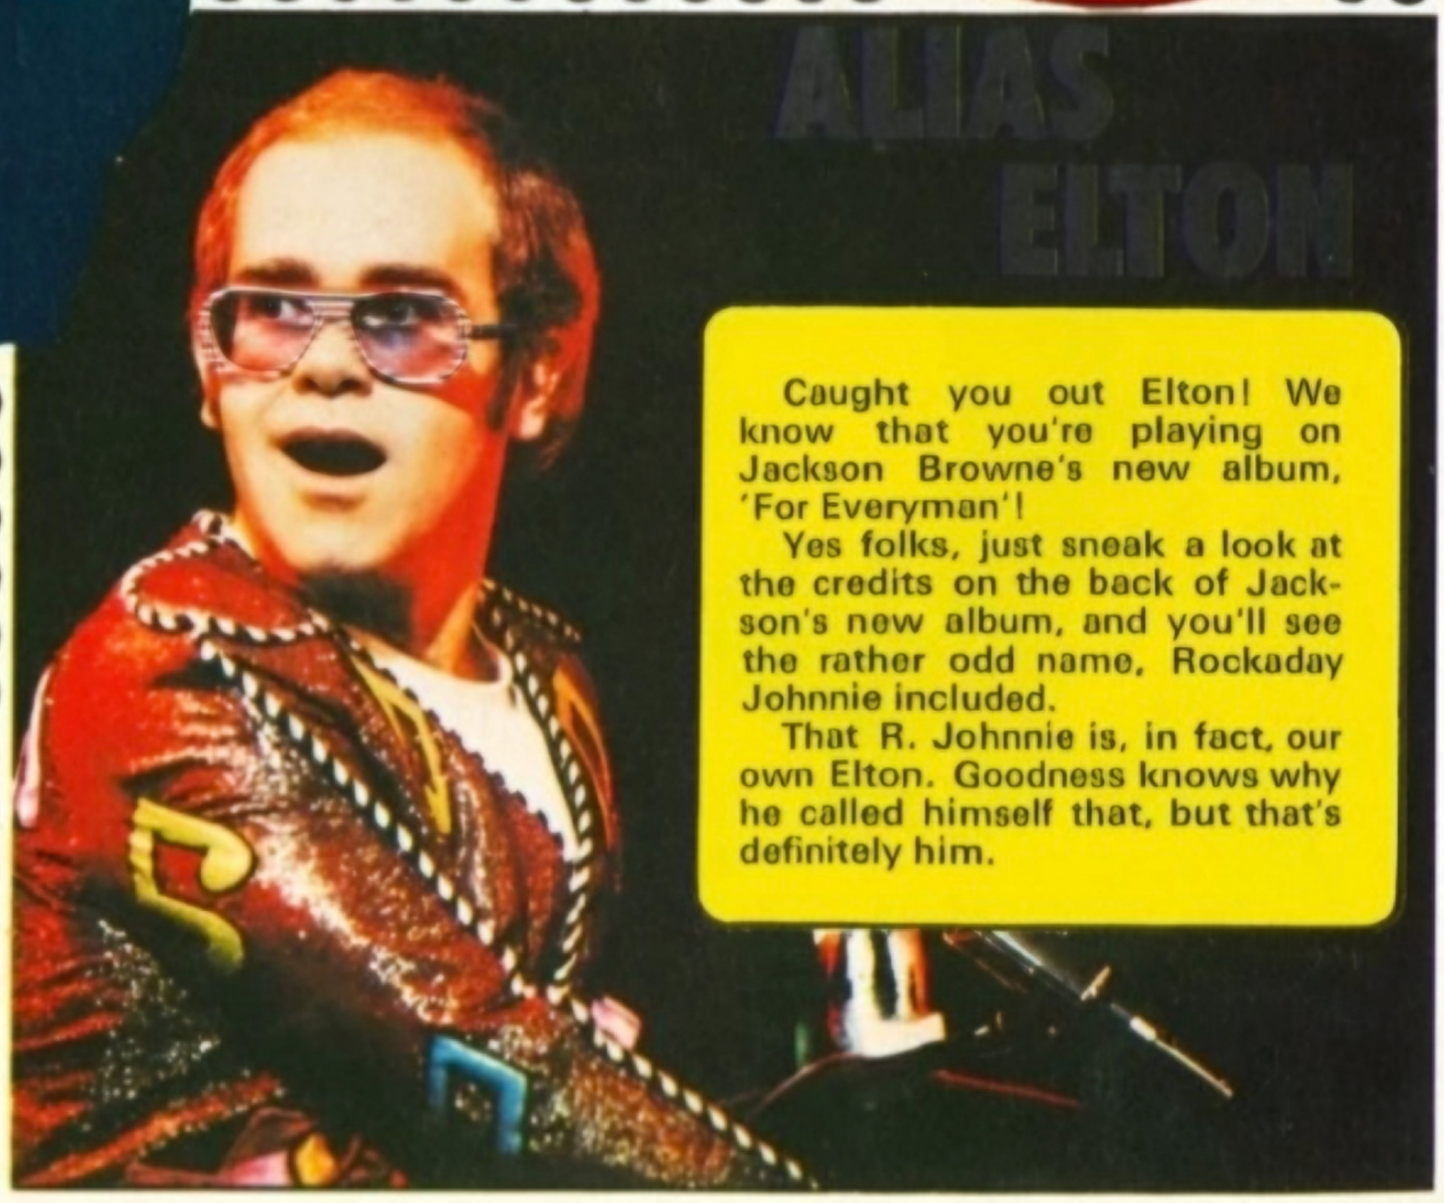

PINBALL EAGLES

Honestly! Here we are, desperado Eagles fans, waiting with bated breath for their next album, and what are they doing instead of recording it? Playing pinball machines!

It really is too much for Sue! She's one of their biggest fans and has been saving for ages to buy the new album, so you can imagine her wrath when she heard the disgraceful news.

It'll be their third album by the way, if they ever finish it!

ALIAS ELTON

Caught you out Elton! We know that you're playing on Jackson Browne's new album, 'For Everyman'!

Yes folks, just sneak a look at the credits on the back of Jackson's new album, and you'll see the rather odd name, Rockaday Johnnie included.

That R. Johnnie is, in fact, our own Elton. Goodness knows why he called himself that, but that's definitely him.
