58 Parker Street, London WC2B 5QB, Fan Club Secretary, Susie Miller

Hello there!

Just in case anyone has been in a cave for the past few weeks, I will formally announce that this is the month that David returns to this realm, THIS ENGLAND! Of course, he'll come to us by way of the Germans, French, Belgians and Dutch, but we all know that anyone with good sense saves the best for last! So when he piles out of that plane in Manchester on the 12th, we can all be sure that David will be in great condition for his whirlwind tour of Britain.

Of course, he can't play everywhere he (or we!) would like to, because what with the Partridge Family Show, and David's plans to do a feature length film — not to mention his recording sessions and concert commitments in the States, he's so busy that he could only spare us a week.

But just look how much he has crammed into that week!! It only takes one look at the number of changes in his concert schedule to assure even the dimmest doubting Thomas that David wants to please us The number of concerts increased from 4 to 6, and then to 7, then 8 and finally 10! And if there were 30 hours in a day instead of 24, David would have squeezed in 4 more concerts! So give him his due, he's working hard and it's all for you.

It's also a notable month for another couple of Partridges, and one of them is related to David as well (if you guessed Dave Madden, go to the rear of the class!). Shirley Jones celebrates her birthday on the 31st of the month, as good a sign as any that March will be going out like a lamb. And Suzanne celebrates her birthday on the 6th, although at 10 she's just a bit younger than her telly mum say, a few years!

And there's still more good news to come. It seems like citadel after citadel has fallen in our battle to get the Partridge Family on every television in England. ITV in Devon have just agreed to put the show back on the box — where it belongs. So take heart, all of you in Partridge country, all it takes is the will to win!
