

"Starship" Blasts Off!

Are ya ready for the blast-off? Then you're ready for "Starship," the newest and most exciting group around! Starship is made up of Micky Dolenz, the ex-Monkee, and Michael Lloyd, the adorable co-producer of the Osmonds records. Or, as Micky and Michael would put it: "Commanders Micky Dolenz, from the constellation Monkee, and Michael Lloyd, producer of the Osmond fleet, assure you that Starship is reaching critical mass and will soon control the audio systems of the planet." And the record that will be "controlling the audio systems" is called "Johnny B. Goode," and it's on MGM Records. It'll put you in orbit!

You can write Micky and Michael at this address: P.O. Box 1198, Los Gatos, Calif. 95030.

Who's the Girl with David?

"Hey, that's me!" exclaimed David, coming over to say hello to a girl wearing a Cassidy T-shirt!

David was in Cincinnati with the Partridge Family, filming an episode at the Kings Island amusement park, when he spotted this fan in his T-shirt.

Photographer Henry Diltz snapped these pictures of them together, but he never got the girl's name and address. So if that's you wearing the David T-shirt in these pics, just drop a note (with a snapshot of you) to Valerie Berger at FLIP Magazine, 405 Park Ave., New York, N.Y. 10022, and we'll send you the original photos of you and David that you see here!
