Hot Cassidy!

Jack Cassidy and Shirley Jones and David's mum were at David's first show at Wembley. Later visitors included Ed Stewpot and Tony Blackburn and his wife to name but a few. Talking of David, the security net around him, made it very difficult for the fans to get through at Wembley. and even a hosing down with cold water didn't get rid of all of them! Well, squeal-wise, young Mr. Cassidy is certainly the hottest thing to happen to the pop scene since the Beatles, regardless of what critics say — he's a professional showman and knows what it's all about!