to hear the plot, but we'll wait until after the reruns! No use spoiling a good show!

Another success story this month is Danny Bonaduce! I should say that the success is Danny's first hit single, "Dreamland." Dan's first song is selling beautifully all over the country, and now he's working on his first album!

"Dreamland" was written by a friend of Danny's, and a fellow recording artist Bruce Roberts. Bruce records for Bell records... same label as our David Cassidy! In case you haven't heard Bruce's record, you'll hear him doing back-up on Danny's album.

There sure has been a lot going on this month hasn't there? Well, not everybody has been busy! As a matter of fact, David Cassidy has been resting for awhile!

"Usually, when the show breaks for a vacation, I either go on tour, or hop off to Hawaii or Europe! This year I decided that I'd better take it easy, or I wouldn't last too many more seasons!" David said. "I found out that you can't keep up a fast pace forever, so I'm just sitting around writing songs, going to the beach when it's sunny enough. I might start on tour a little later, but for right now, I'm having a great time unwinding!"

Naturally there are still rumors flying that David has a steady girl.

Good heavens!

Was that Susan Dey being locked in the attic on "Circle of Fear"? It certainly was! Susan's first ghost story was aired last week, and she was terrific!

"I never had so much fun in my life," said Susan after she finished the "Circle of Fear" episode. "I've always wanted to do a scary show, but I never had the chance before. I thought that I was doing okay when we first started shooting the show, but when it came time for the screaming, I clammed up! I was so embarrassed! Finally, I did it, and I just hope it's convincing!"

Well, for those of you who didn't catch the show, Susan was very convincing! You could really feel the tension mounting as Susan took step after step into the attic.

I asked Susan if she liked the character she played... a girl named Peggy, who was in charge of her little brother and sister.

"That's hard to say," she said. "I'm personally not as brave as Peggy was. I mean, she knew something was weird up there in the attic, but she went up anyway. Of course, she has to go up in the end, because she's trying to find her sister. I guess I'd go into a strange attic too, if I thought my little sister was in trouble."

I'm sure some of you are just dying

ARE THE Partridges still friends? They sure are! They love working together & get along off the set, too!
