THE RIGHT PARTY

For Your Special Guy!

Spring and summer are natural times for parties! Everyone comes out of winter hibernation, and the feeling is "Let's get together!" Each of us has his favorite kind of party, and that's true for your faves, too! If you were giving a party and YOUR fave was coming, here's how you could have a really swingin' time for everyone!

MICHAEL ONTKEAN: I don't like very large parties. If you were inviting me, I'd like very much to have it later in the evening about 9 or 10! There'd be about 8 or 10 people and we'd all go to a funky little Mexican restaurant near the ocean and stay until very late, eating corn chips and tortillas while listening to their mariachi band! Sound like fun?

TONY DeFRANCO: My favorite kind of get-together is with my large family... all the aunts and uncles and cousins! We'd have a huge buffet Italian meal (yummy!) and then just sit around and talk about funny things that have happened in the family! I'd love to have you meet all of them!
