TV Tidings!

Things are looking up in the TV world—the long writer's strike that's had everything at a standstill is over! That means everyone can go to work on the new and old shows for the Fall.

Everyone in town breathed a sigh of relief when the settlement was finally worked out and studios all over town geared up for work.

Susan Dey's among many celebrating the end of the strike, since her steady date Dale McCraven is a writer and hasn't been able to work during the strike. Let's hope he turns out some more brilliant scripts for "The Partridge Family" this Fall.

David Cassidy

Jan-Michael Vincent

And David Cassidy is eager to get to work on his last season of "The Partridge Family." He's been spending a lot of time lately looking over movie scripts. As soon as he finishes this season of PF he'll be free to finally do a real movie—something he's wanted to do for a long time.

Did ya know—that David was one of several people considered for the lead in the movie "Jesus Christ Superstar"? Too bad, he didn't get it, but Teddy Neeley is brilliant in it. And besides, I doubt that David would have enjoyed the over 100 degree weather that the cast of the movie endured in Israel during the entire filming—or the numerous illnesses that bugged everyone in the cast.

Also, did ya know—that "The Odd Couple" sings!!!!???? Really!! Tony

Glad you flipped in! 'Cause here's a special spectacular especially for YOU! SCREEN SCENE!!!! Featurin' all the nuttiest news & gossip & straight-on fax on all your TV and Movie favs! So, for the latest on the greatest—view the scene on the screen—each month in FLIP!

Randall and Jack Klugman, those lovable stars of "The Odd Couple," have just released an album titled "The Odd Couple Sings"! It's hysterical—a real comedy hit. Can you picture Oscar and Felix singing "You're So Vain!"?

Don't cha' just love Jan-Michael Vincent? Well, you can catch him on an ABC-TV "Movie Of The Week" very soon! It's titled "Fair Game" and don't we all wish Jan-Michael was fair game—but he happens to be just about one of the happiest married guys around! Too bad for us, but lucky Mrs. Vincent!!!

Harry Chapin—who did the song "Flying In My Taxi"—is working on a film about the lives of his two godfathers. One of them is a philosopher and author and the other is a Canadian painter. Harry says the film is really for his own kids so they can know their heritage. The film cost $20,000 and so far Harry has no intention of letting any of the rest of us see it.

Have you seen the new Disney flick "One Little Indian"? It's a wild film about the army using camels to transport mail and goods across the desert—but the wildest part of all is that it's based on a true story! The U.S. Army really used a company of camels during the mid-1800's before the railroad was completed across the country. Can you imagine getting your mail by camel?!

Andy and David fans are in for some good TV watching as the boys are getting ready to appear on a mess of different shows. They're already set for a "Jonathan Winters Show," one of Bobby Goldsboro's shows and a couple of "Dean Martin Shows." And wouldn't it be great if they were on "The Sonny and Cher Comedy Hour" again?!

Do you believe that Bob Hope is 70 years old!?! And still going strong!

Our buddies, Kip Walton Productions/Sam Riddle Organization, who already bring us "Superstars of Rock" and "Session," have another TV goody in the works. It's to be called "The Good Sport" and will feature sports celebrities each week teaching kids about your age how to do their sport. How about Joe Namath teaching you how to throw a pass?! Wild! The pilot's being done right now, so let's hope it goes OK.

Tony Randall

Jack Klugman

Would you believe that Keenan Wynn, who's currently starring in "Herbie Rides Again," has two sons and three daughters and all of them have Keenan as a middle name and, naturally, Wynn as a last name! That makes six Keenan Wynns! The kids' first names are Edmond, Edwyna, Emily, Hilda and Tracy.

After you see "Jesus Christ Superstar" if you fall in love with Teddy Neeley, you should be forewarned, he has a thing about dancers. His last girl friend was one and his current—Leeyan Granger—is one of the dancers in the film. Put on your dancing shoes!
