

PARTRIDGE FAMILY FAN CLUB

58 Parker Street, London WC2B 5QB, Fan Club Secretary Susie Miller

Hello there!

It's certainly been an outtasight October, with David's single and album both making chart news in a big way! In fact, David gave me strict instructions that the very first thing I had to do this month was to pass on a message from him . . . He just wanted to say: "Thanks for everything. And especially for showing your faith in my new break into a slightly different style of music. It's great to know I've got you behind me."

It's about time I cleared up one or two rumours about the Partridge Family love life which have been bugging some of you recently. First of all, word has evidently been getting round that David has at long last found that 'special' girl he's been looking for. That certainly started the letters rolling my way, and naturally you'd like to know who she is. Well, so would David!

When I asked him if his girl-of-a-lifetime had finally appeared on the scene, this was the answer I got:

"I sure hope that she hasn't, 'cos, if she has, I must've missed her!" He went on more seriously to explain that he has really been too busy even to look around for anybody special — let alone find her! "Sure, I meet lots of pretty special girls," he told me. "But so far I've never gotten to know any of them well enough to find out whether she could be really special for me."

As for those of you who wondered whether David had finally fallen for Susan Dey in a big way, you can certainly put your minds at rest instantly. For the simple reason that Susan and Dale are still very much together and look like staying that way. In fact, I don't think anybody would be surprised to hear wedding bells before too long. Even Susan admitted that she and Dale have talked about getting married 'off and on'. But, so far, she insists that they have done no more than talk! So it might well just be a question of time . . .

Talking of time again, don't forget that it's running out for you if you haven't already sent up for your entry form to join the Muscular Dystrophy Treasure Hunt.

Those of you who are official members of the Fan Club and so are entitled to a special personally mailed newsletter have, of course, had advance information on this. For the rest of you, I've only got room to tell you that prizes include an all expenses paid trip to Hollywood where you will meet DAVID CASSIDY IN PERSON, an invitation to a London film premiere, and lots and lots of fabulous Bell records.

Incidentally, all treasure hunters will be given a special David Cassidy badge free, and have the chance to meet and chat to Ed Stewart on the day. For full details and entry forms write to: Treasure Hunt, 72 Westfields Avenue, London SW13 0AU.

But bear in mind that the hunt will take place in the City of London. So, if you live outside the London area, organise travelling arrangements well in advance and do make sure your parents know where you will be.

Good luck!

Susie
