Speak up! We're listening!

Hi!

Well after all the speculation, the news is finally out. The new people on the Partridge Family this fall will not be David Holmes or Simon Turner but a four year old singer/dancer named Rick Seagul and an eighteen-year-old comedian named Alan Bursky. Rick will be a regular on the show but Alan has been cast for what they call a recurring role, which probably means that he won't be on every week, but you should see a lot of him.

Speaking of Simon Turner and I was, we here at Teen Life got to spend an entire afternoon with this English lad and is he far-out! But you'll find out everything on pages 42 and 43.

In the July issue of Teen Life we ran the Super Scramble Contest and now it is time to announce the winners. Drum roll please! The first prize winner is Miss Vicki Kelley of Sumter, South Carolina. Vicki will receive an oil painting by the Williams Twins and a copy of their latest LP "Meet Andy and David Williams." There are twelve more second prize winners who will receive the LP, "Meet Andy and David Williams" and they are: Miss Ann Donnelly of Gloversville, N.Y., Miss Dolores Isaacsen of Brooklyn, N.Y., Miss Susie Sermerrick of Hickory, Pa., Miss Evelyn Toellner of Paxton, Ill., Mr. Jonathan Morrow of Staten Island, N.Y., Miss Rosemarie Baner of Hollywood, Fla., Mr. David J. Leszynski of Baltimore, Md., Miss Susan Kinslow of Ridgefield, Conn., Miss Connie Fiore of Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. or Miss B. Evemeyer of Danville, Ill, Miss Barbra Newman of Ellison Bay, Wisc., and last but not least Miss Debbie Simon of River Rouge, Mich. Congratulations to all, and to those who didn't win try your luck with the Super Jumble Contest on pages 36 and 37.

I'm just about out of space so please keep writing! I read all the letters you send in and that's the best way for me to keep in touch with you to find out what's on your mind. So until our next issue (at your newsstand on October 16) stay happy!

Love,
