

Dear B.J.:

In the July issue of TEEN LIFE a reader wanted an explanation of Cher Bono's two maiden names: La Pierre and Sarkisian. I know the correct answer. Cher was born Cherilyn Sarkisian to an American father and a French-Cherokee Indian mother. But then Cher's parents got a divorce. Her mother remarried a man whose last name was La Pierre. Eventually this man adopted Cherilyn and changed her name legally to Cherilyn La Pierre. That's why Cher Bono has two maiden names.

a reader from Ohio

Dear Reader:

Thanks for setting the record straight.

Dear B.J.:

I'd like your help in writing to Diana Ross. I'm 17 and I just adore her. Does she have a fan club?

Debbie Angelino
Samaritan Hospital
San Jose, Calif.

Dear Debbie:

You can write to Diana Ross at either one of these addresses: Diana Ross Fan Club, R.J. Long, President, P.O. Box 1983, New York, N.Y. 10017 or Motown Records, 6464 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, Cal. We hope you feel better and that you'll be back home soon, Debbie.

Dear B.J.:

I have just bought TEEN LIFE for the first time and I like it. Please answer these questions for me. Do any of the Osmonds smoke? Do any stars go to public school or do most of them go to private schools? Is it true that Sonny and Cher are enemies?

Darlene Smith
no address

Dear Darlene:

None of the Osmonds smoke. Most stars go to private schools because usually public schools do not have hours to accommodate them; they can only attend classes after rehearsal hours or during hiatus so they need a special school. All Sonny and Cher's goofing with each other on their show is not meant to be taken seriously. If they were enemies they could not stand working so closely with each other like that every single day. Hope we've answered your questions.

Dear B.J.:

Tell me where I can write to that groovy guy who plays Radar on "Mash" please.

A "Radar" lover
no address

Dear "Radar" lover:

Gary Burghoff, as well as all the "Mash" stars, can be reached at this address: CBS-TV, 7800 Beverly Blvd., Hollywood, Calif. 90036.

Dear B.J.:

I think Tim Matheson is really cool. I wish they hadn't taken "Bonanza" off the air. Tell me where I can write to Tim.

Terri Brammer
Wayland, MO.

Dear Terri:

We were sorry to see "Bonanza" go too but after Dan Blocker died the rest of the cast felt that it just wasn't the same! Pen those letters to Tim c/o NBC-TV, 3000 West Alameda Avenue, Burbank, Calif. 91505.

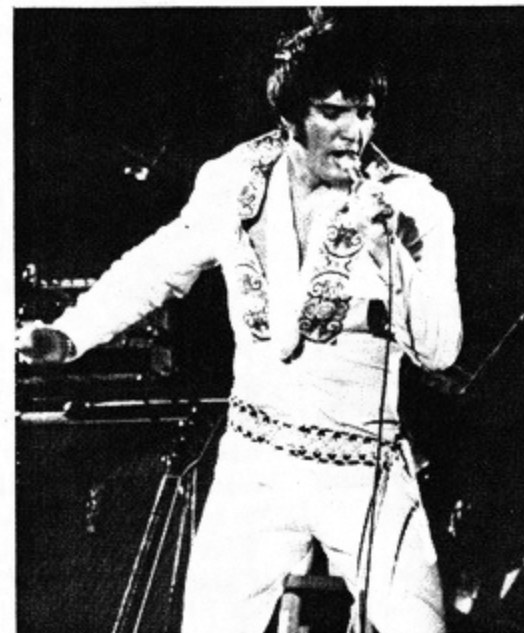

Dear B.J.:

Do you know if Donny Osmond will move away from Utah before college?

Mabrie Griffith
Plano, Texas

Dear Mabrie:

Donny's heart, as well as his family's, belongs to Utah. That's why the Osmonds just had a new house built there. Donny may travel a lot but he'll never "move away" from Utah!

Dear B.J.:

I would like to know where to write to Elvis Presley.

Harold Starnes

Dear Harold:

Write to Elvis at his fan club: El's

Angels, 5404 Hillside Drive, Kansas City, Mo. 64151.

Dear B.J.:

Do you think you could put more on Jan-Michael Vincent in the book? And please tell me where I could write to him.

A Jan Fan
no address

Dear Jan Fan:

For all you Jan-Michael Vincent screamers, turn to page 39 for a fantasterrific story on him. Write to him c/o Walt Disney Productions, 500 Buena Vista Street, Burbank, Calif. 91503.

Dear B.J.:

When I read the July issue of TEEN LIFE and dug on "The Wacky, Way-out Wisdom of the Williams Twins," I nearly went wild! Wow! Tell me where I can write to those wonderful Williams boys!

A fan
Hayward, Calif.

Dear Fan:

Those love letters will reach the twins if you mail them to: Williams Twins Fan Club, P.O. Box 4188, North Hollywood, Calif. 91607.

Dear B.J.:

TEEN LIFE is great. However, it would be greater if you included more stuff on the Partridges, Gilbert O'Sullivan and Sonny and Cher Bono. Sonny may be over 30 but he's still one of the handsomest guys around.

Heather Anne Daye
Ohio

Dear Heather:

For all Partridge-lovers we've included an outasite feature on them on page 26.

Dear B.J.:

I read the July issue's story on David, "England vs America: Which Girls Turn David on most." Of course, David is entitled to his own opinion. But I don't think he should feel that his American fans are tired of him. I'll never get tired of him! David—give us American girls a chance!

Ellen Fischer
New York

Dear Ellen:

We think that David will never forget his American fans.

Dear B.J.:

I'd like to know if you could give me Richard Thomas' address. My mother says it's not possible because if you printed his address then everybody would be hounding him. I told her this wasn't true because TEEN LIFE said that he gets fan mail all the time? Who's right?

Joanne Bruder
Oliver, B.C., Canada

Dear Joanne:

Both of you are right! Richard does get a lot of fan mail. It's sent to him c/o CBS-TV, 7800 Beverly Blvd., Hollywood, Calif. 90036. He reads all of it, too. This address is a good place to write to him because your letter will reach him there. Of course, it wouldn't be fair to print his home address because Richard, like all of you, is entitled to some privacy. By writing to him at CBS-TV, you will contact him, yet not intrude on his privacy. And that's what you want to do, right?
