

the television set!

... or, what's up with your television friends!

There's some good news we know you've all been waiting for! To everyone's delight, it has been officially announced that DAVID CASSIDY will appear on every episode of Partridge Family this season! Some of you should consider yourselves responsible — we're positive the beautiful cards and letters you sent had a major influence on DAVID. During the lengthy Writers Guild Strike, the superstar finally got to take his well-deserved vacation in Hawaii. Feeling relaxed and healthy, DAVID is back in front of the cameras and will soon be visiting your living rooms via the television set. ... Another weekly visitor from Partridge Family will be eighteen-year-old comedian ALAN BURSKY, the newest addition to the series. No doubt he will be offering DANNY BONADUCE some pretty stiff competition! ALAN is rapidly becoming very popular in the nightclub circuit; he just completed a smash engagement at the Diplomat Hotel in Miami Beach with new Capitol Records group Trend as well as a headlining gig at Mr. Kelly's in Chicago. If you are a night owl (watching the tube, of course), you might have seen ALAN clowning on Johnny Carson's show. ... Looks like DICK CLARK is going to be responsible for another dynamite variety show geared to teen audiences. The name of the newly conceived show for ABC is Action '73 and we're sure there will be plenty of it—action, that is! The Heywoods will be regulars on the show where the action is. ... for you pop teens called Pop. You might have seen the one he did last year. DAVY recently received rave reviews for recreating his Artful Dodger role in Oliver! ... Whatever happened to BOBBY SHERMAN? BOBBY is perfectly content with the chores of being a husband and a father although it looks like he'll be doing a long awaited TV Special in the very near future. He's also been reading scripts, waiting for the perfect movie role. Did you know that his secret ambition is to direct? In the meantime, reports say he's preparing a nightclub act for the M.G.M. Hotel in Las Vegas. ... And what's happened to BOBBY's sidekick WES STERN since Getting Together was cancelled? Besides keeping himself on the television set by doing lots of commercials he's gone into the music publishing business! ... Hottest young actor in town award goes to SCOTT JACOBY hands down. Since SCOTT's talents were awarded in the form of an Emmy, he's been constantly employed—watch for him on the Frozen Smoke segment of The Rookies. ... In your spare time, do you ever wonder what your favorite TV stars are doing during their spare time? Emergency's RANDY MANTOOTH, who has some Indian blood running through his veins, devotes much of his spare time running to political rallies in sup-
