

DAVID CASSIDY is hard at work on a brand new album and single too! David, who celebrated his 23rd birthday on April 12th, has decided to give up concerts and in-person performances for a while. He'll be spending more time on recording sessions and his acting career. Remember, the Beatles did the same thing so David seems to be following a good pattern. If he's really tired, but has to film "The Partridge Family," David eats a quick lunch and spends the rest of his lunch hour catching 40 winks.

JACKIE JACKSON was 22 on May 4th. His real name is Sigmund Esco but he prefers being called Jackie. Lately, he has been going out with Redd Foxx's daughter, Debbie. "Oh, I date her," he says, "but we're not getting married. I'm just dating a lot of girls, trying to have a good time." All the Jacksons have been bombarded with movie and TV offers. Jackie was offered a "Mod Squad" episode but he couldn't do it because he was on the road. He's recorded his own solo album but it hasn't been released yet.

SUSAN DEY, whose middle name is Hallock, is still a bachelorette. Although her romance with Partridge writer Dale McRaven is as strong as ever, they still haven't set a wedding date. Susan, born December 10, 1952, came to Hollywood at the age of 17 from Mt. Kisco, N.Y. In fact, she had to finish her courses at Fox Lane High School by mail, and her diploma was mailed out to her in Hollywood. Susan thinks of her acting experiences as her college education. Besides "The PF," she starred in the movie "Skyjacked" and also appeared on TV's "Circle of Fear."

JERMAINE JACKSON was born on December 11, 1954 in Gary, Indiana. Jermaine likes to go out a lot. "When we go out," he says, "we never really get mobbed unless Michael's with us. He's the one who draws the crowds. I was at the movies the other night and people knew me but it wasn't such a big deal. I go out a lot because I don't like to be cooped up. I really like to see what's going on in the streets." Jermaine has been dating Hazel Gordy, daughter of Motown Records head, Berry Gordy. "It's not serious. Right now I'd like to write some scores and get my music together."

MICHAEL GRAY has been in love with show business since a child. He originally wanted to become a newscaster. "I gave that idea up when I discovered I mumbled too much," he mumbled. Michael, with dark brown hair and green eyes, celebrates his birthday on September 2nd. He weighs 125 lbs. and stands 5'8" tall. Before landing the role of Ronnie in "The Little People" (which will next year be called "The Brian Keith Show"), Mike had done guest shots on a number of TV shows, including "Room 222," "Marcus Welby," and a TV Movie of the Week.

MARLON JACKSON, total Pisces, born March 12th, 1968, thought that the recent J-5 tour of Europe was great fun. He especially liked the clothes and the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace. He and Michael wear the same sizes, so they very often borrow each other's clothes. His mother says that he learned to dance before he learned to walk. Music is his first love and Diana Ross and Sly & the Family Stone are his favorite performers. He thinks it's fun to travel on buses so you can look down at the cars going by. Marlon claims that he definitely wants to get married someday.
