agree and the two of you spend an hour romping in the water.

Your evening winds up at the beach. In the moonlight, sneakerless and sockless, you and Jay wade in the water, hand in hand. As the rushing waves trickle through your toes, you look into Jay's eyes and he looks deeply into yours.

But magical moments like that can't last forever and, before you know it, you and Jay are standing on your front porch. He tenderly bends over and kisses you on the cheek. "I'll see you soon," he whispers and walks

If you were Jay's girl, you'd be treated like a princess. If you were Jay Osmond's girl, you'd be the happiest girl in the world. And that's no joke.

DAVID CASSIDY

the kind of person who needs time-out! Time to think about himself and time to just be himself if he wants to.

Of course, there's another facet to this gem! Delectable David is also a full-blooded American male who likes young women. Although he's 23 years old and still a bachelor, that doesn't mean that David doesn't have his "black book" of numbers that figure heavily in his social life. When he takes a girl out it is often not to a public event. But when he goes to a party, a screening, or a restaurant with a date, David is unfailingly polite and well-bred regardless of his feelings for the girl. He was brought up to be a gentleman and he is naturally polite to everyone, dates and friends alike. Quite often, a rumor-monger will see his attentions to a date and label him an old "lover-boy" when all it is are his gentleman-like instincts at work.

When David goes out he really enjoys himself. He likes to be in the company of a girl he really digs and who digs him. Even though he has no "steady" David is no stay-at-home either. But he doesn't date as often as he likes, or as often as other non-show-biz young men do because he doesn't have the time.

Whatever he does on his free evenings, David makes the most of it. If he's with a favorite filly, he's loving and gentle to her. When he's tired and needs a night of peace and quiet, he retreats to his house and gets into his own head.

Is he a lover or a loner? David is both at different times depending on his mood and situation. When he's a loner he really gets into his own head. Likewise, when he's in the mood to be a lover, look out!!!!
