

Hit The Scene

Ever wondered what it's like to be a twin? Andy & David, our favourite fellas, have been telling us just what it's like to have a double—could be interesting!! They are sociable guys, too, they're inviting us all round to their place!

We've got some info this week on someone who we're sure you're going to see around a lot more in the coming months. His name's Darren Burn and when you see his picture you'll know just what we mean.

Well, I must go. We're all working like mad to make sure we don't miss any of the latest news, and I mustn't keep you from this terrific pop package any longer!

Much love,

Tony
