

What could be brighter and nicer than Michael Jackson posing just for us on our cover this month? We were recently over in America and visited The Jacksons in their beautiful home in California. Three Alsatians greeted us at the gate, and we were told to beware because they're there to protect the boys. After a while we became great friends with them, as we did with The Jacksons, and we'll be bringing you all our super photos shortly.

While we were over there, how could we miss meeting those angelic twins, Andy & David Williams! The answer is, we couldn't. They spent so much time with us, showing off all the incredible sights of their home town, and we really would like to thank them for their kindness.

Now it's on with another colourful pop show!

With very best wishes,

Paul Raven

COMES ON SALE
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19th, 1973.

Dear Danny Bonaduce,

Every week I watch 'The Partridge Family' on TV, and although I like David Cassidy, the real reason I watch the show is to see you, Danny! You're so cute and always come out with the funniest things. I've a feeling that they're your lines, and not part of the script.
Susan Miller, London.

Dear Sweet Steve,

I'm the only girl in my class who likes you, but I can assure you that I make up for everyone else! I just wish more magazines printed pics of you. You do cause a few rows at home from time to time, because the new wallpaper my parents put up in my room is now covered with your photos. Never mind, you're worth all the trouble!
N. Craig, Durham.

Dear Osmonds,

Your new sound is just terrific! I've always quite liked your records, but it's only just recently that I've got into your sound so much. Even my sister, who is twenty and really into heavy sounds, thinks you are great. Carry on making good sounds!

Karen Symms, Essex.

Darling Andy & David,

I like you so much because you're so sweet and seem to sing with all you've got. My older sister thinks your dad is rather dishy, so would it be possible for FAN to print a pic of you with your parents?

Jill Graham, Edinburgh.

Dear David,

I was heartbroken to hear that you're leaving 'The Partridge Family'. It's really my very favourite TV programme, and whenever you come on to the screen my heart turns over. Please, please do another TV series, so I can still welcome you into my home.

Lindy Green, London.

Dear Marty,

I think you're marvellous, miraculous, magnificent, magical, mystical—and oh so manly! I think your latest single is out of this world—and I can't wait to hear the LP you and the other New Seekers boys have made called 'Peter, Paul & Marty'. I'm sure it will be great—and my mum has promised to buy it for my birthday.

Sharon Clarke, Sussex.
