

DEAR CAROL

Q. Could you please tell me what Donny Osmond's middle name is? Thanks. S.M.—Saskatchewan, Can.

A. Certainly—he's Donald Clark Osmond.

Q. Is it true that Julie London of "Emergency" was married to Jack Webb, divorced him and married Bobby Troup? L.N.—White Boro, N.Y.

A. Yes, it's true!

Q. What is Rick Leonard's whole name and how old is he? K.A.—Konea Path, S.C.

A. His full name is Richard Arlen Leonard and he'll be 20 on December 1 of this year.

Q. For about 3 months I've been hearing that the Osmonds were making a movie called "The Real World Of Make Believe." Then just a few days ago I saw a TV show called by that same name and it had Donny on it. Was this the movie the Osmonds were making? M.S.—Bradford, Pa.

A. "The Wonderful World Of Make Believe" was always intended as a TV special, not a movie. The Osmonds want to do a movie, but haven't found the right script yet.

Johnny Rivers

Q. I would like to know Chris Knight's height and weight. Can you help me? L.V.—San Marcos, Tex.

A. Surely—Chris is 5'6" tall and weighs 130 pounds.

Q. Can you tell me where I can join Andy and David Williams' fan club? D.A.W.—Houston, Tex.

A. The address for Andy and David's fan club is P.O. Box 1409, Beverly Hills, California 90213.

Q. I heard from a friend that "The Partridge Family" is being moved to Saturday night. Please tell me it's not true. S.N.—Phoenix, Ariz.

A. Sorry to report it is true. Starting with the new season this fall, "The Partridge Family" will be on opposite "All In The Family" on Saturday nights.

Q. Is it true that Michael Ontkean is from Canada? If so, where? T.S.—Ontario, Can.

A. Yep. Michael's from Canada—he was born in Vancouver, Canada.

Q. I just love the New Seekers! They're fantastic! Quick, where can I write to them?!

K.P.—Canoga Park, Calif.

A. You can write to the New Seekers at MGM Records, 7165 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, California 90028.

Q. My birthday is August 29 and I heard that Michael Jackson's birthday is also August 29. Is that true?

A.H.—Monticello, Ind.

A. It sure is—you share your birthday with Michael!

Q. I read in the New York Times that David Cassidy's birthday is January 12, but I've always heard it was April 12. Which one is really his birthday?

M.M.—N.Y., N.Y.

A. Just goes to show even the New York Times can make mistakes—you are right, his birthday is April 12.

Q. Is the Neil Diamond who wrote "I'm A Believer" and "Look Out" for The Monkees, the same Neil Diamond, rock star of today? K.N.—El Monte, Calif.

A. He's the same one!

Q. I would like to know if it's true that Elvis Presley is dying from a disease that his mother had. D.C.—Tomah, Wis.

A. No, it's not true. Elvis is not dying from anything.

Q. I think Jan-Michael Vincent is beautiful, but I just heard he's married. Can that be true? L.H.—Pearl City, Hawaii

A. It's true—Jan-Michael is beautiful—and married!

Q. Would you please tell me what school Donny Osmond and his brothers go to? And also what age girls will Donny date when he turns 16? K.W.—Erlanger, Ken.

A. The Osmonds don't go to a regular school—they spend three hours every day studying through correspondence courses. And Donny says he'll probably date girls just a little

Joe Schermie

Q. Is it true that Sonny and Cher split up for a while? D.S.—Blanchardville, Wis.

A. Sonny and Cher were having some problems for a while, but they've made up now and all's well with the Bonos!
