

MY IDEA OF HEAVEN ON EARTH

CHRIS KNIGHT

A whole weekend to myself with no work or appointments—somewhere in the country with no smog and no crowds—just green and peaceful and some close friends.

RICK JOSWICK OF THE HEYWOODS

My idea of heaven on earth would be to be able to bask in the sun with a beautiful girl on my own deserted island in the South Pacific. I'd have nothing to do but relax, swim and collect my thoughts.

EVE PLUMB

I guess that heaven on earth is meant to be some deep wish or desire which, if fulfilled, would make one very happy. I do have such a desire and that is to be able to express my appreciation to the fans that write to me and send me photographs. It's impossible to answer personally all of the generous and thoughtful mail, but my conscience would feel better if it could be known—through FLIP Magazine—how I would like for this to come true.

WAYNE OSMOND

Heaven is definitely to be up alone in a plane—the feeling of freedom and peace is something never to be found anywhere else. I love it!

DAVID CASSIDY

I found heaven on earth in Hawaii. I love everything about it, the warm climate, the super friendly people. I'm buying some land there and I'm going to spend as much time there as my schedule will permit. It's definitely heaven as far as I'm concerned!

MAUREEN McCORMICK

For all people to love everyone.

ALAN OSMOND

I think heaven here would be a world full of peace and love with no more war or poverty or disease—a world filled only with happiness and music!

BO DONALDSON OF THE HEYWOODS

My idea of heaven on earth would be to be with a girl in my Lotus sports car, driving through the country with the wind blowing through our hair: I'd have nothing particular to do that day—just enjoy being with "a special someone."

LANE CAUDELL

A large ranch where I can raise horses and settle down with the girl I love. The ranch should have plenty of land with a natural lake, where we could go swimming, boating and fishing. I would also like a helicopter landing so I could fly into the city when I had to.
