

DAVID QUITS PARTRIDGE!

After wanting out since last season, David Cassidy has finally persuaded Screen Gems to let him off the hook after next season's Partridge shows. They'll cover themselves by introducing a new juvenile lead who supposedly will take over Keith's place in the family singing group.

ABC-TV, reportedly, is so upset by David's decision to leave that they have put the show out to pasture by moving it opposite CBS-TV's Number One show, "All in the Family." This might mean that with or without David, "The Partridge Family" will soon remain only a memory in the hearts of all of us who love but may lose them.

OSMONDS TO LIVE IN ENGLAND!

The silliest story of the year has to be about the Osmonds moving to England. All that was ever said was this: In a London press conference, Alan Osmond said politely that the Osmonds considered England their second home.

Well, the British press took this statement and interpreted it to mean the Osmonds had had it with America and would move themselves and all their belongings to England for good.

The American press is still laughing about the press conference the Osmonds held to deny this story. So ridiculous was the whole thing that the less said about it the better. Donny and the Osmonds belong to us. So there!
