

DAVID CASSIDY

David was born in the Little Flower Hospital in New York City in 1950. . . . He presently makes his home in Encino, California with his good friend from high school, Sam Hyman. . . . He likes girls who are natural-looking, and don't drown themselves in gobs of make-up. . . . He enjoys writing songs and hopes to someday record an album containing all of his compositions. . . . David has a growing collection of record albums which he keeps in alphabetical order for easy access. . . . Since he doesn't always find enough time to thoroughly read the newspaper, he often catches the news on TV. . . . Girls who change their haircolor turn David off—he's interested in natural tresses! . . . David often saves the unusual stamps that come in on foreign correspondence. . . . Elton John is one of his favorite singers, whom he also regards as a very close friend. . . . David likes sunglasses, but admits that after wearing them awhile, they make his nose feel ticklish and funny! . . . Camping in the mountains is one of David's favorite ways of "unwinding" over a weekend. . . . He loves traveling throughout Europe and visiting the ski resorts to pursue his newest and favorite hobby. . . . David always tries to look on the bright side of things rather than becoming upset about "inconsequential." . . . He claims the first things he notices about a girl is her hair and then her legs! . . . David lets his dog, Bulls-eye, run around his backyard 'cause it's secluded and very spacious. . . . Since most of his family members and friends have birthdays in the beginning of the year, David claims it's easy to remember the dates! . . . He belonged to a club when he was in high school that was known as the Chaparrals. . . . David likes wearing Levi's more than anything else, and only dresses up for special occasions. . . . He's close to his half-brothers, Shaun, Patrick and Ryan, and tries to see them at least once a week. . . . Show business not only runs in David's immediate family — his grandmother was also a professional singer!
