

My Favorite Photos

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 84

BOBBY SHERMAN: My Favorite Subject

Way back in 1969 when "Here Comes the Brides" came on TV, I was happy for Bobby when he became a star because he'd always been nice to work with. I even shot pictures of him when he appeared on "Shindig" way back in 1965.

DAVID CASSIDY: Great Fun, But Hates to Pose

When I met David for the first time, it was in 1970 when he came up to the Tiger Beat office for an interview. He was shy at first and didn't want to pose very long. He likes to keep moving when I take pictures and won't sit for any long periods of time.

SUSAN DEY:

More of a Comedian than a Glamour Girl

Susan Dey makes a photographer very comfortable when he's taking pictures of her because of her modeling experience. She loves to goof off and really doesn't care if you take an unflattering photo of her, which is pretty hard to do.

MORE PIX ON PAGE 88