

HERE THE COME DOGS

"Dog days" are traditionally the days between early July and early September when the weather turns very hot and muggy.

But, as you can see, "dog days" means more than that to your faves, because they have their own dog days, all year round!

Come and meet the dogs you guys and gals love!

DAVID'S THE ALL-TIME champion dog-owner! He loves all animals, especially dogs, and he has plenty of room to keep them, too! Above left, that's David with Sam and Sheesh's puppies in the fall of 1970. Tiger Beat had a contest to give them away! Their names were Dainty, Cassy, Pepper, Happy and Tiger. Upper right, you know it's David and Sam. When Sam died, David wrote the sad and beautiful song, "Ricky," in his honor. Below, left, is David and Kula. She was barely more than a puppy when David lost her to distemper. Now (below center and right), David has two lovable dogs: Sheesh, whom he's had since she was a puppy, and his newest addition, Bulls-Eye! Happy dog days!
