

HOW TO

BE DAVID'S GIRL!

MEET HIM!

David's a super busy guy, but if you're quick there are several places he can be found! First there's his super secret home in the San Fernando Valley area of Southern California—but if you don't want to bother him at home, there are a lot of other places where you can meet David!

As you know, he films "The Partridge Family" at the Columbia Ranch in Burbank, California. So, anytime the show is in production he'll be there all day almost every day! During his daily lunch break, he often dashes out to one of the nearby restaurants, such as the Yankee Pedlar, that's another good spot.

He spends many hours recording those fantastic records of his, too. You can check out the recording studios around Los Angeles. One of his favorites is Western Recorders, but he uses several different ones, depending on his mood.

In addition, there's his manager's office, Bell Records and Screen Gems TV offices—all places he drops by periodically.

GRAB HIS ATTENTION!

Being shy and coy won't get David's attention—you've got to do something really spectacular! Like, have you tried carrying a balloon around with you at all times—that is certain to make you stand out in any crowd! And David notices people who stand out. Make it a blue balloon and you're sure to get his ever lovin' attention!

TALK TO HIM!

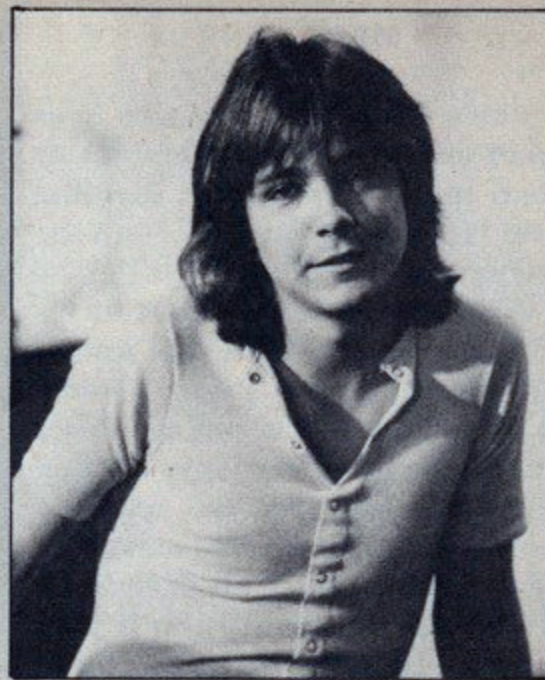

David's about had his fill of super shy girls who meet him and then can't utter a word—and of super aggressive girls who tug at him and ask nosey, personal questions. So, if you really want to talk to him, try to be somewhere in between. By all means, do talk to him—but don't ask personal questions. Ask him about what concerts he has coming up, or when his new record will be out. Or, even better, tell him which episode of "The Partridge Family" is your all-time favorite—he really would like to know!

Tell him a little about yourself, but don't go into a long life story that will take hours. Just tell him your name, where you go to school and things like that. Be straight and honest with him, and you'll find he's the easiest guy in the world to talk to. Really!

TURN HIM ON!

Turning David on is simple—be sexy but sweet! That may sound tricky but it's really not. It's just you at your best. He isn't turned on by cheap, sleazy girls—but neither is he seeking some rich, sophisticated type. He just wants a real girl who looks nice and is just a little on the sexy side.

Wear your prettiest dress with the latest shoe style. And don't forget a little dash of perfume—a natural, earthy fragrance works well on David. Try to keep your make-up to a minimum—David doesn't like a lot of make-up on a girl!

LOVE HIM!

There's just one big secret to keeping David's love forever and ever—and that is simply to avoid jealousy at all times! He's constantly surrounded by people who claim to be his friend and who are jealous of others claiming they're his friends—and David hates it! If you're going to love him and not lose him, you're going to have to learn not to be jealous of his fans, his family, his manager, his friends, or anyone else who takes up his time.

There's enough of David to go around, and if you've truly captured him, then don't spoil it by trying to compete with everyone else who wants to be near him. He loves his fans and wants to spend as much time as possible with them. He doesn't want a girlfriend who's always bugging him to go out with her, rather than answer that pile of fan mail, or who wants him to talk only to her.

Jealousy can ruin everything with David—so drive it right out of your life, and you can go on loving loveable David for eternity!
