

Have you ever wondered what it would take to make your favorite star really notice you and remember you? Of course you have! Haven't you?! Well, take note — it can be done!

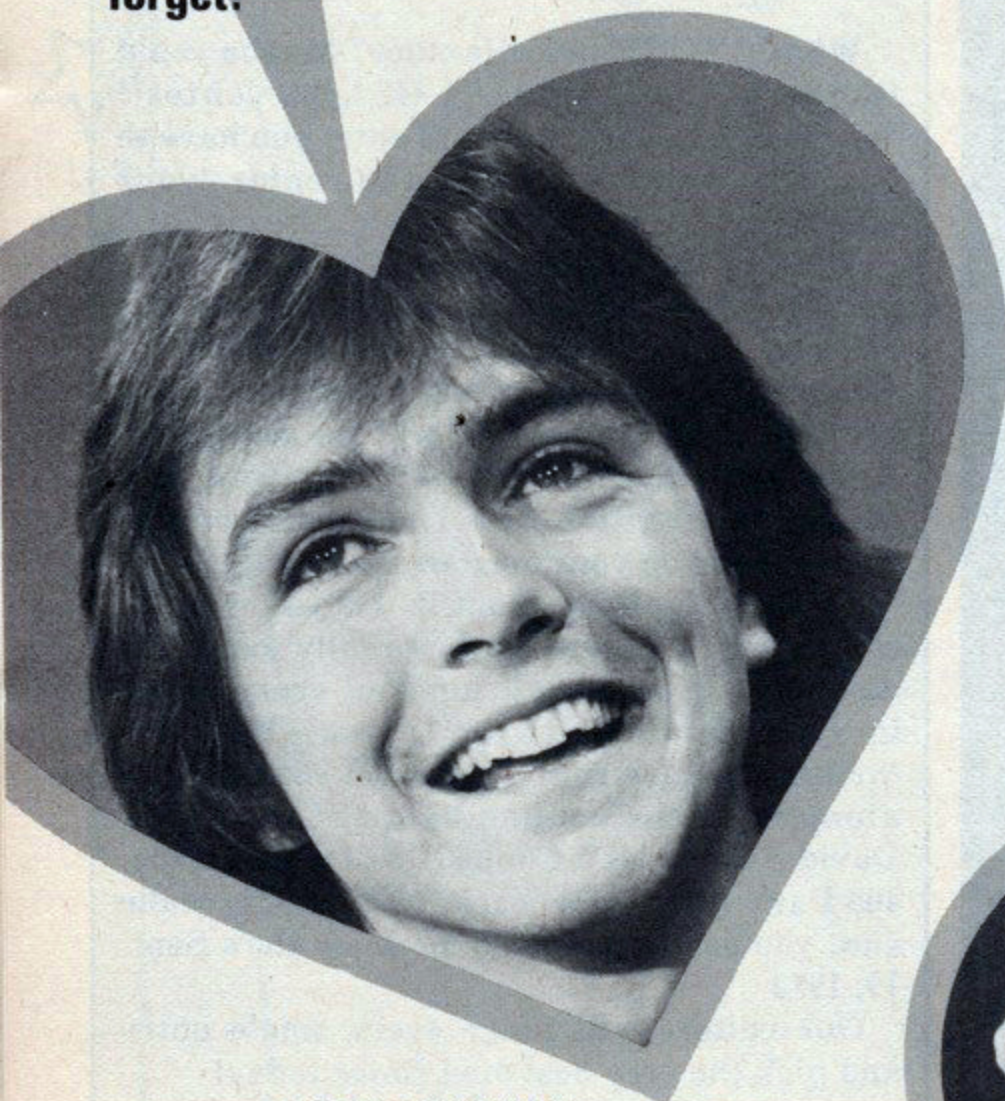

Here — just for you — each and every one of your fav stars reveals to you the fan (or fans) he knows he'll always remember! Who knows, you might be the fan your fav will never forget!

CHRIS KNIGHT

The one who sat in the front row for four shows and never once smiled or applauded!

“The Fan I’ll

DAVID CASSIDY

The fans I'll never forget were the ones who wrote to me after my dog, Sam, died. A lot of them had lost pets too, and they said how sorry they were about what happened to my dog. They were all so sincere and compassionate—I'll never forget any of them!

DONNY OSMOND

I'll never forget any of my fans. I love each one so much. It would be impossible to pick one out from all the rest. I love them all—the shy ones, the aggressive ones, the loud ones, the ones that giggle, even the ones that grab at my clothing. I'll remember every one of them forever!
