

DAVID'S LONDON PHOTO DIARY!

This past fall, David took a whirlwind tour of England, France, Luxembourg, Germany and Holland. He was kept awfully busy—as you'll see!

David's first stop was London, and this is the beautiful yacht in the Thames River where he stayed. It belongs to a European businessman, and is generally rented out to prominent businessmen and visiting heads of states. David is the first entertainer to use it.

During a press party aboard the yacht, David fills his plate while Sam Hyman looks on.
