

DAVID'S MYSTERY MUSIC!

David Cassidy's been cooking up something secret for a while now, but he's keeping close guard over it!! All anyone knows is that it has to do with David's music—but no one can say why he's being so mysterious or just what the big secret is all about!!!

SUPER SURPRISE

Meanwhile, everyone's going crazy trying to figure out what these bold, new ideas might be!!! Is David going to go country-western? Is he thinking of a folk sound or toying with the idea of developing a latin beat? Or is he working on a sound that is so absolutely brand new that there's not even a name for it yet???

Whatever it is, we're in for a big surprise! And knowing David Cassidy and the high quality of everything that he does—it should really be a super one!!!

Working on "The Partridge Family" gave David a chance to be exposed to many different ideas and ways of looking at and doing things. He traveled all over the world and met many different kinds of people. He recorded albums and watched them climb the charts. And he experienced the magic of being a Superstar!!!

But now that he's moving to things outside PF, he's beginning to experience a new musical freedom! Now he can make his music sound exactly the way he wants it to sound and he doesn't have to be influenced by any considerations outside his own personal likes and dislikes!

BREAKING OUT

A good example of the direction his music is going in is David's newest album, "Dreams Are Nuthin' More Than Wishes." In it he explores new methods and techniques and finds new ways to express himself musically!

But this is just the start. David's songs have something special to say and he wants to find just the right way to say them. This is where the mystery comes in! While he's still developing his musical techniques, David refuses to come right out and say where he's going to go with his sound or let us know exactly what we can expect from his music!!!

TAKING CHANCES

"Music is very much a part of me. I'm always going around with tunes in my head. I have lots of ideas for new songs, but I don't think I'm going to talk about them yet. After all, I think there's something good in surprising people!!!"

David adds, "I want to record material that I really enjoy . . . I'm going to take some chances on different things. But I'm not worried by people who tell me I'm likely to lose my fans by trying something new. I think they'll stay with me!"
