

"IS IT TRUE?"

SEND YOUR QUESTIONS TO: DEAR LINDY, FLIP MAGAZINE, P.O. BOX 38470, LOS ANGELES, CALIF. 90038

A. You're not the only one who's "flipped" for dashing Davidson either! Yes, John's married to a lovely lady who was formerly singer Jackie Miller and they have two children. John says he loves doing the show, especially working with talented and bubbly Sally Field!

Q. I keep wondering about a concert that David Cassidy was going to do in Central Park and then no one heard about it and nothing happened. Will it happen and if so when? M.C.—Stirling, N.J.

A. You're talking about the free concert that was cancelled. David wanted to do it, but the city wouldn't permit it because they feared there would be trouble with so large a crowd. Doesn't look like it's gonna tral Park? I have to know! G.Y.—Brooklyn, New York

A. Yes, Mick is married to Bianca. They've been married for a couple of years now and if you see a photo of her, you'll be amazed at how much alike they look!! As for the David Cassidy concert, it's not going to happen. The city wouldn't permit it.

Q. I heard that David Cassidy has a cute brother named Sean, but I didn't think they were really related. What does Sean do? J.G.—Halls, Tenn.

A. Yes, David does have a young

JAY OSMOND

A. The truth is Julie was married to Jack Webb many years ago, but they divorced and she is now happily married to Bobby Troup, who's also on "Emergency."

Q. Is it true that Michael Ontkean was born in Vancouver, Canada? Is not, then where? B.C.—Prince George, B.C., Can.

A. Yep, it's true—he was born in Vancouver.

Q. Has "Emergency" been taken off the air or has it been changed to a new time? I've missed it a lot lately. N.G.—Huntington, N.Y.

A. No, the show hasn't been moved or canceled. It still airs every Saturday at 8 p.m. on NBC-TV.

Q. Can you tell me where I can write to Andy and David Williams? Thanks a lot. L.D.—Sylmar, Calif.

A. You can write to Andy and David at P.O. Box 1409, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90213.

happen at all, I'm sorry to say, and David regrets it, too.

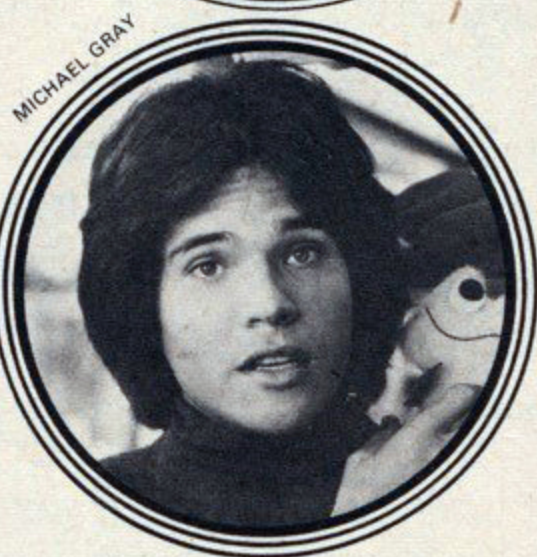

Q. Is it true that Randy Mantho and Kevin Tighe really hate each other off screen because they're jealous of each other? I heard that they had a big fight and haven't spoken to each other since! P.R.—South Burlington, Vermont

A. Randy and Kev are really good friends on screen and off, and are not jealous of each other because both guys are equally talented and admired by fans everywhere. They do have little disagreements from time to time, but all friends do!

Q. Could you please tell me if Mick Jagger's really married to a girl named Bianca? Also when is David Cassidy appearing in Cen-
