

OF HAPPINESS

Exclusively for you!

everywhere are very 'environment conscious' these days and I understand the campaign has been a great success.

"I had two years as National Youth Chairman of the Special Olympics—a charity in America that helps mentally retarded youngsters to lead as normal lives as possible. It's sponsored by the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation. Seeing at first hand the good that the movement does always provides a lot of happy memories.

"I'm not able to accept many of the requests I get to open charity fetes and dinners, but those I do attend make me feel that what I'm doing is very worthwhile.

"Hawaii, is my private Bali Hai where I can retreat and get body and soul back together again. There I have time to reflect on the great times I've been having and the ones yet to come. Anybody in need of some happy memories of their own to store up should take the next plane out to Hawaii. Nothing personal, but please don't look for me!

"More places which hold pleasant memories? A houseboat on the River Thames—which became the worst kept-secret in the world. A castle in the English countryside surrounded by a moat—a beautiful place where even the local ghost kept his distance.

"Then there was one particular dawn ride on a favourite horse with the sun coming up fast over the mountains. Nobody to be seen in any direction. A feeling of cleanliness, newness and hope.

"You lose track of recording sessions but never of what came out of them. 'Cherish', 'Could It Be Forever', 'How Can I Be Sure', 'Rock Me Baby', 'I Am A Clown', 'Some Kind Of A Summer', 'Daydreamer', 'Puppy Song'... a beautiful memory every one.

"If I come up with a more personal statement than 'The Dreams Are...' collection, it will have to be a superb album. Freedom, good vibes, working together and last but not least, some good reviews! If you enjoyed the album as much as I did making it, we're winning!

"Then there's myself. Remembering the David Cassidy of the not so distant past isn't always a source of pleasure. I have my faults, lots of them but I try to put them right. It does me good to look back and recall what sort of person I was a year ago and two years ago. Then I'll have a better idea of what I can become a year from now.

"I'm vain enough to think I've improved as a performer over the years I've been in show business and some of my happiest memories I have to admit are quite selfish ones. I love looking at old re-runs of 'The Partridge Family', playing the early records, recalling early stage shows. Not for the pleasure they give me so much as showing what I've achieved since then."
