

"My New Year's Eve Plans!"

NEW YEAR'S EVE'S GOTTA BE THE SILLIEST, FUNNEST, MOST EXCITING NIGHT OF THE ENTIRE YEAR! BUT BESIDES THAT, PEOPLE LOOK BACK ON THE PAST YEAR AND FIGURE OUT WHAT THEY DID WRONG, AND LOOK FORWARD TO THE NEW YEAR AND DECIDE HOW TO DO IT RIGHT! EVEN IF YOU DON'T HAVE SOMETHING TERRIFIC AND SPECIAL PLANNED FOR NEW YEAR'S EVE, IT'S JUST AS FUN STICKING AROUND THE HOUSE WITH A FEW FRIENDS AND WELCOMING IN THE NEW YEAR TOGETHER! HERE'S HOW YOUR FAVS PLAN TO SPEND NEW YEAR'S EVE!

DONNY OSMOND—Well, you have to remember I've got a new sister-in-law and I really think she's great! So I'm probably going to stay home with the family and we'll have a huge party with punch and cookies and chocolate cake and anything else I can talk Mother into!! We're going to have a great time, and I'm looking forward to what the new year will bring. I hope it's meeting you!!

RANDY MANTOOTH—I've been working so hard with Kev and all the other terrific people on the show, that I'll probably stay home this year and just drink some champagne and then maybe map out my plans for next year. I took that great vacation in Canada this year, and I'd like to get away again and just rest up, and have a good time. I love doing "Emergency" but a guy needs a little relaxation, too!

DAVID CASSIDY—It's hard to say what I'll do. I have a bunch of friends, and I'm always invited to lots of parties—last year I just party-hopped from house to house—I think I made the rounds, from Chatsworth to Beverly Hills, three times, and went to seven parties in all! But if the show gets picked up for next year, the cast and crew will probably get together and celebrate. We do that after we finish each episode, but this will be livelier and there'll be more people!

KEVIN TIGHE—I have a buddy who's a magician, and he's a member of The Magic Castle. He's been promising me for ages he'd take me up there some time and show me all the strange things that go on there. They've got a piano that plays itself, and a ghost for a bartender. I wonder what'll happen at midnight—maybe I'll disappear!!
