

GOSSIP'S TATTLE-TALES

RICHARD THOMAS: STREAKER OF THE YEAR!

RICHARD THOMAS is a nice all-American young man, right? So naturally, he follows all the latest fads—even streaking! That's right. Seems little ol' "John-boy" decided to coax some of his fellow cast members into a little streaking while he was appearing in the play "St. Joan" at a Los Angeles theatre. But don't worry, folks, it was only from one dressing room to another and—shucks, they were all guys. Was it like skinny-dipping on the Walton farm, RICHARD?

MICHAEL GRAY DISAPPOINTS FANS

As if it weren't enough that he had to shear most of his dark locks off for a role in a recent movie ("Our Time"), MICHAEL GRAY recently made a decision that might make all of his fans sigh—with doubt! MICHAEL was asked by a certain magazine to pose for a nude layout that would have run ten pages long and paid quite a pretty penny but his answer was a definite "No!" Supposedly, MICHAEL claimed that "I didn't want to disappoint any of my fans." Gee, MICHAEL, do you mean you didn't want to "disappoint" them by taking it off—or leaving it on?

MORE MINNELLI MAGIC

If you're ever wondering how LIZA MINNELLI always gets the most handsome men in the world running after her, just ask EDWARD ALBERT, JR., one of her most recent ex-loves. "Liza's the type of girl who makes a man feel handsome, intelligent, witty, strong." Oh, gee, EDWARD, is that all? And here everyone was really wondering . . .

DAVID CASSIDY DEPORTED!

DAVID CASSIDY may be popular with Australian fans but he's certainly not a favorite with the Australian police! DAVID was in Melbourne, Australia when he allegedly caused a riot during a concert. An estimated 65,000 fans went wild when he started singing, and thousands of screaming fans rushed the stage, crushing people in the front row against steel railings. Fans who fainted were passed over the heads of the crowd to first aid stations, where 350 people were treated for hysteria and minor injuries. The next day, mind you, DAVID was deported! On what grounds, you ask? The Australian officials declared that he "is a menace to the public health." Now that's fame—DAVID, you'll be as well known as small pox!
