small space, but there are plenty of books in the shops which explain it quite simply.

Take it from me, making up a crossword isn't as easy as it sounds.

What you have to do first is to draw the crossword design. It's a good idea just to copy one from a newspaper. Then you try and make up some clues which aren't too difficult for your friends to solve.

I bet you think that writing a song is very hard. Well, you are wrong. You don't even need to be able to play an instrument. You do need a tape recorder, though, but if you have not got one maybe a friend can lend you hers. All you do is think up a nice tune with some words to go along with it, and then you tape it. Keep doing it again and again until you get it perfect.

you and I'd just like to say a very big thank you for giving me the opportunity.

HAVE FUN!!!

mother a cup of tea and take it into her. She wouldn't have been very pleased to be woken up in the middle of the night!
