Star of the page!

Dear Melanie, I've just had my room decorated and instead of putting wallpaper on the wall, I've covered it with Melanie centre pages! There are over 50 pin-ups because I've been getting your mag. ever since it started. I may have to start papering the hall with pictures soon!

Face it!

Dear Melanie, I have a great idea for raising money for charity. My idea is to run your own beauty salon. All you need are several eye shadows and lipsticks plus a large tube of face pack. You can make your friends look great for a small charge. The only problem is that your room gets in a bit of a mess!

Cassidy book

Dear Melanie, Could you please ask any fans of David Cassidy if they would send me a message for him. I am compiling a presentation book for David and all contributions will be really welcome. Any postcards of the area fans live in, will also be great. It'll be like a tour around Great Britain.

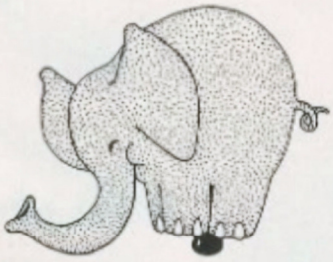
Cute an'Cozy!

Dear Melanie, Would you please print a picture of Cozy Powell. His drumming is fantastic and he's a real good looking guy.
Peta Stone, Yorkshire.
Dear Peta, We've drummed up a photo just for you.

Just right!

Dear Melanie, Looking over some old copies of your mag. I came across the 'Just The Job' section. I wondered how famous writers began their careers, do they start on magazines like yours? I'm very interested in writing and would be grateful for information on starting a career.
An Avid Reader, Huntington.
Dear Reader, There are many channels to try but it's the sort of thing where you have to be in the right place at the right time! Try your local newspaper for starters.



What did the grape say when the elephant stepped on it? Nothing – it just let out a little whine.

Minding me!

Dear Melanie, You'll think this letter is really daft! On Saturday nights I go baby-sitting, but you couldn't really say I do any minding. The little boy who I look after has to stop up and keep me company because I get frightened. I've never had the courage to ask if he minds!
Gary Glitter fan, Mansfield.

Ben...

A dashing 'alias' in disguise,
A baddie who turned good,
With Hayes he respects the law,
And does just as he should.

His gun is always at his side,
Though very seldom used,
Drawing fast, his aim is sure,
Which leaves his foe confused.

He's almost got his amnesty,
And with him go my wishes,
When he wants to settle down,
I will do the dishes!!
Kathryn Miller, Glamorgan.
