

YOUR CHANCE TO MEET DAVID!

To enter this great competition write and tell us, in NOT MORE THAN 150 WORDS, what you think meeting David will be like. You can make your entry a poem, or a diary entry, or just tell us about the places you would like to see and visit.

Then fill in the coupon, and send it, together with your entry and at least 10p in National Savings Stamps, to: MEET DAVID CASSIDY COMPETITION, P.O. BOX 5, WOODFORD GREEN, ESSEX, IG8 0TY. You can send as many entries as you like with your coupon, but each entry must be accompanied by at least 10p worth of National Savings Stamps—but remember, ONLY ENTRIES ACCOMPANIED BY NATIONAL SAVINGS STAMPS WILL BE VALID. (Do not enclose money or any other kinds of stamps.) DO NOT STICK STAMPS.

The winning entry and the 50 runners up will be selected from the best entries by the following panel of judges: Ed "Stewpot" Stewart; Sally James, presenter of "Saturday Scene"; Michael Bottomley, Chairman of the Friends of the Children Society, and Alan Fennell, the editor of Look-in. The competition is open to readers from 8-18.

HOW YOU CAN HELP DAVID HELP THE CHILDREN

The "Meet David Cassidy Competition" has been organised to raise money for the Friends of the Children Society, a very worthwhile charity that collects money to help handicapped and deprived children—and David wants you to help them, by enclosing at least one 10p National Savings stamp with each entry. The money raised by the competition will go towards providing a new permanent holiday home by the sea for these unfortunate children.
