

Three cheers for our good pal Henry Diltz! Who? You heard it the first time, his name is Henry Diltz and we think he deserves three cheers! You see, Henry is David Cassidy's best buddy and it's because of him that we manage to get so many beautiful and exclusive photos of D.C. So thanks, Henry, and that's from all of us Fan people!

Arrows and Mud are new to Fan and you'll find them happily sitting amongst the pages inside in great colour. The boys have got lots to say, so listen in.

Have a happy time and don't forget to meet us in the next very special issue of Fan for a super-pop time!

With best wishes,

Dear Shaun,

I'd just like to wish you and the other members of Longfellow all the luck in the world. I bet they gave you a great time on your birthday in September. No doubt Robby, Bobby and Bugs gave you the bumps behind stage. At 16 I think you're very accomplished. I don't know anyone who can play guitar, drums, piano, harmonica and synthesiser! The Cassidy family is obviously a very talented lot although I'm sure you have your own individual ideas. I know your favourite group is Led Zeppelin so I've been listening to some of their records. They take some getting used to!

Gill Hewlett, Hants.

Hi Jay!

My dream is to be in a huge football stadium, standing right in the front close to the pitch. You'd be dodging about on the field, tackling everyone brilliantly and scoring goal after goal. I know you're very keen on football but I guess that it's the American type which is more like our rugby. Still, that doesn't stop me imagining you here in Wembley Stadium. If I could be there too I'd knit myself a huge scarf and bobble hat. Your name would be embroidered all over them. (All you'd need would be three more brothers and you'd have a complete team!)

Sharon Pattison, Middx.

Great Gary!

As far as dance music is concerned, you're the greatest. When you brought out your first record as Gary Glitter I realised that you were going to be big. It was such a great record. Of course I've liked all your records since but 'Rock 'n' Roll Parts 1 and 2, still is my favourite. I only hope that I don't wear it out, I might not be able to get hold of another copy.

Sandra Joseph, Essex.

Dear Marty,

One day I would really like to meet you so that we could sit down and talk. I'd love you to tell me about your life in Australia, I'm sure you've got some fascinating tales. You must also have had a terrific time when you sailed to England, paying your fare by entertaining the passengers. That side of you is obviously the get up and go type. But I know that there's a quiet, reflective side to your nature. As I said, I'd just love to talk to you.

Maria Hughes, Wilts.

Dear David,

This is just a plea for you to return to the stage. I understand all your reasons for stopping touring but that doesn't stop me wanting to see you. Your last concert was incredible and when you left I had to cry. It was your fault for singing such beautiful songs. They just reduce me to a quivering mass when I can actually see you singing them. Still, I want you to be happy.

Amanda Bentley, London.
