Hot Hints On What's Happenin' On The West Coast!!!

... Rumors and reports that Vince Van Patten has a steady girl are simply not true!!! Though Vince is old enough to date and does so occasionally—he's a shy guy who's not seen around town with a different girl every night. He's much too busy practicing his tennis and starring on "Apple's Way."

... David Cassidy's been relaxing after his last concert tour in Europe but in between relaxing he's been busy label shopping for a new record company! His last Bell album's just been released and it was recorded live during his recent European tour!

... Seems Shirley Jones is still trying to keep David's half-brother Shaun out of show business! Seems Shaun still wants in—so what happens is anybody's guess! Shaun loves to practice with his own group though as of yet they haven't signed a contract with anybody. What's brother David saying about all this? He's keeping conspicuously quiet!!!

... David Essex is living next door to Bridget Bardot in a villa in Spain!!! Not full time, of course! David's still living in England and he's doing lots of traveling these days due to his heavy work load! 'Course, he's super excited about his starring role in a movie about the late and great James Dean!!!

... Despite what's being printed in "movie mags" these days—Cher Bono is not going back to Sonny Bono! And that's absolutely positively nothing but the truth! When Cher left for Europe not long ago with her sister and secretary, Sonny was not along. (Neither was David Geffen— though he'll probably join her over there!)

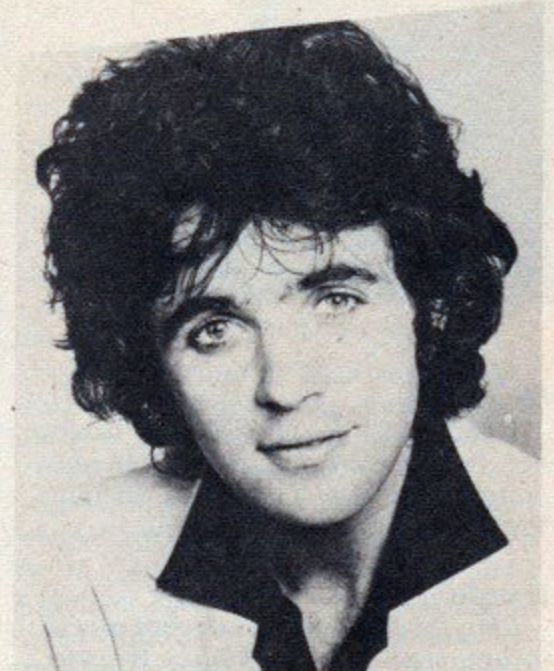

David Cassidy

... Rick Springfield's keeping very busy doing lots of local gigs in and around Hollywood! He's played the Troubadour again and has appeared at lots of local shopping centers in concerts sponsored by local radio shows! At one of these concerts the crowd sorta lost its composure—barricades were knocked down and the next day extra police protection was needed to prevent injuries! Rick came away unscathed and so did everybody else!

... Lucky fans who were in Las Vegas during the Osmonds appearance actually got to meet and get autographs from all the guys!!! The Osmonds really do want to meet more of you and they held three autograph parties for fans! At one, 10 girls were let in at a time to meet and get autographs from Donny and Jay—and that's never happened before!

... Guess what the Heywoods got from one adoring and imaginative fan in Anchorage, Alaska? One square inch of Santa Claus' North Pole!!! No kidding!

David Essex

She sent the Heywoods an official deed to the property and all the guys thought it was the neatest thing they'd ever received! So far the guys haven't had time to get up to Alaska to inspect their land—but Santa Claus is keeping an eye on it for 'em!!

... Did you know that Dick Clark's "American Bandstand" set is torn down every six years to make way for a new one? Well, it is! AND —Andy and David Williams were the last act to perform on the stage you've seen all your favs perform on for the last six years! Right after Andy and David performed in late summer—wrecking crews came to tear down the set! Have you noticed American Bandstand's new look?!

... It was a very simple wedding for Peter Wolf—lead singer for the J. Geils Band—and Faye Dunaway in Beverly Hills. They're planning to live in England—when they find the time! Both are super busy with their careers these days!!!
