Write to us

Hi, everyone!

We're all very sorry that you've got to pay twopence more for Music Star as from this week—and we're determined that what you get for your money will be even more terrific value than it was before. For a start, we've got Barry Blue writing especially for you as from this week . . . and there's a really exclusive competition at the end of the mag. Great stuff!

Thanks for all your lovely letters. Don't forget the stamped addressed envelope if you want a reply,

Love,

Pat

A FAMILY OF FANS

Dear Pat,

I would like to tell you about my three sisters who have been looking after us since our mother and father died two years ago. They are Jean, Mary and Mickey. We are a very big family and there is a lot for them to do. There is Joe (25), Pat (24), Dan (23), Diarmuid (22), Liam (21), Andrew (19), twins Mary and Jean (18), twins Mickey and Michael (17), John (16), Joan—that's me—(14), Seamus (12), Kathleen (10), Julie (9), Sean (8), Anne (7), Maureen (5), and the triplets Aoifa, Aine and Aishling (3). As you can imagine, it's some job looking after us all. We are all mad Gilbert O'Sullivan fans and we also like Mushroom, Thin Lizzie, Planxty, Stage Two, The Beatles and David Cassidy.

Joan O'Sullivan—Dublin.

Send us your full address, Joan and we'll forward your pound to you.

DAVID GETS SNAPPED

Dear Pat,

I have the Partridge Family album, 'Bulletin Board'. In the song 'Money, Money', David tries to sing too high and that makes a terrible noise, but otherwise I think that this album is the best yet. I like David Cassidy and took some photographs of his singing 'Daydreamer' on television. Perhaps you could print one of them in Music Star? I took some of The Osmonds, too.

Corrie Derksen—Arnhem, Holland.

IT'S A DOG'S LIFE

Dear Pat,

When my pal was small she was out for a walk with her big brother when she saw a sausage dog. My friend stared at the dog and then said: "Oh, the poor doggie! His mummy must have made him walk too soon!"

S. Brown—Chelmsford.

GUESS WHO?

My first is in down but not in up,

My second's in saucer but not in cup,

My third is in carved and also in halved,

My fourth is in basin but not in bath,

My fifth is in dry and also in dee,

My sixth is in tea and also in key,

My seventh's in sweet but never in feet,

My eighth is in chase and also in base,

My ninth is in fleece and also in crease,

My tenth is in Xylophone but not in bone

Dawn Bowles—Carshalton.

A: David Essex.

THE GLITTER MAN

Twinkle, twinkle, Gary Glitter,
Up above the sky you flitter,
Like a diamond in the sky,
Then you go and pass me by.
If you stopped and had a look,
You would have me on a hook.
If you stopped and said a word
My heart would sing just like a bird.
In my dreams, you love me,
In real life my heart does plea.
The little songs that he sang
Remind me always of The Glitter Man.

Debbie Baker—Hull.

At Debbie's request we are printing her photograph next to one of Gary. And she gets a pound, too—can't be bad!
