

Page 1

Photo 1: David Cassidy has been spending a few weeks twice a year on Hawaii's sunny beach since 1972. His property on Maui is still undeveloped

Photo 2: David loves long walks on the beautiful North Beach. He has rented a vacation home in Oahu, 50 kilometers from Honolulu

Photo 3: David is in his element in the water. He can spend hours on the beach swimming, diving and sunbathing. This year he also started surfing - Hawaii is ideal for surfers

Page 2

Photo 1: This jeep belongs to the guy with the Ukelele Cyrus Renais, one of David's friends who is also vacationing in Hawaii. They take the jeep on excursions to the Volcanos in the interior of the island

Photo 2: David in the living room of his vacation home. The paper fish above him is the only piece of decor that belongs to him: he bought it in Honolulu

Photo 3: David even takes his guitar with him to the beach. Especially this year: David wants to use the weeks in Hawaii to put together the new songs for his next LP

Photo 4: David at his hobby - photography. In the foreground a large papaya, David's favorite fruit in Hawaii. It tastes sweet and is very nutritious.

Photo 5: David's favorite is "Spiffy" from the house next door. The animal looks like the now deceased dog that Sam Hymen gave him. David would like to buy Spiffy, but his mistress won't give him up.