

David: “I will always cherish Kay”

I am firmly convinced that our love will last a lifetime, says the completely transformed David, who would love to carry his Kay around in his arms forever. Small photo: David with the house sign showing the heraldic animal, a coyote.

This cozy room is reserved for the Cassidys' guests. During their honeymoon, it is naturally unoccupied.

David is completely happy and indescribably in love with his Kay. They even cuddle while walking in the garden.

The huge, colorful couch stands in the living room, with David at the dining table in the background.

Kay and David are inseparable. David even helps fry breakfast eggs in the kitchen so he can flirt with Kay. “David is a good husband,” beams Mrs. Cassidy.

David's new car purchase, a 1940 Ford classic “Woody,” which David refurbished.